

have numerous alternative venues that they may participate on and direct their order flow, including 15 other equities exchanges, as well as a number of alternative trading systems and other off-exchange venues, where competitive products are available for trading. Indeed, participants can readily choose to send their orders to other exchanges, and, additionally off-exchange venues, if they deem overall fee levels at those other venues to be more favorable. Moreover, the Commission has repeatedly expressed its preference for competition over regulatory intervention in determining prices, products, and services in the securities markets. Specifically, in Regulation NMS, the Commission highlighted the importance of market forces in determining prices and SRO revenues and, also, recognized that current regulation of the market system “has been remarkably successful in promoting market competition in its broader forms that are most important to investors and listed companies.”¹⁴ The fact that this market is competitive has also long been recognized by the courts. In NetCoalition v. Securities and Exchange Commission, the D.C. Circuit stated as follows: “[n]o one disputes that competition for order flow is ‘fierce.’ . . . As the SEC explained, ‘[i]n the U.S. national market system, buyers and sellers of securities, and the broker-dealers that act as their order-routing agents, have a wide range of choices of where to route orders for execution’; [and] ‘no exchange can afford to take its market share percentages for granted’ because ‘no exchange possesses a monopoly, regulatory or otherwise, in the execution of order flow from broker dealers’”¹⁵ Accordingly, the Exchange does not believe its proposed fee change imposes any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing of Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act¹⁶ and paragraph (f) of Rule 19b-4¹⁷ thereunder. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission will institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments

- Use the Commission’s internet comment form (<https://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an email to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include file number SR-CboeBYX-2024-023 on the subject line.

Paper Comments

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.
- All submissions should refer to file number SR-CboeBYX-2024-023. This file number should be included on the subject line if email is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission’s internet website (<https://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for website viewing and printing in the Commission’s Public

Reference Room, 100 F Street NE, Washington, DC 20549, on official business days between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Copies of the filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the Exchange. Do not include personal identifiable information in submissions; you should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. BILLING CODE 4710–05–P

OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

Notice of Korea's Completion of Applicable Procedures To Give Effect to a Modification to the Rules of Origin of the U.S.-Korea Free Trade Agreement and Announcement of Effective Date

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In June 2020, the President proclaimed a modification to the rules of origin for certain Korean woven fabrics under the United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement (KORUS) and specified that the modification would go into effect the first day of the month following the date on which the U.S. Trade Representative published a notice that Korea has completed its applicable procedures to give effect to a corresponding modification to its rules of origin to be applied to goods of the United States. Korea notified the United States that it had completed its applicable procedures on April 19, 2024. Accordingly, this notice announces the effective date for that modification.

DATES: The modification to the rules of origin are applicable as of August 1, 2024.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Scott Pietan, Deputy Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for Korea, at 202–395–9646 or scott_pietan@ustr.eop.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The United States entered into KORUS on June 30, 2007. Congress approved KORUS in section 101(a) of the United States-Korea Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 112–41, 125 Stat. 428) (KORUS Implementation Act or Act). Section 202 of the KORUS Implementation Act provides rules for determining whether goods imported into the United States originate in the territory of a KORUS party and thus are eligible for the tariff and other treatment contemplated under the KORUS.

Section 202 of the Act also authorizes the President to proclaim, as a part of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS), the rules of origin set out in the KORUS, and to modify previously proclaimed rules of origin, subject to the consultation and layover requirements of section 104 of the Act. Presidential Proclamation 8783 of March 6, 2012 (77 FR 14265) proclaimed the tariff modifications and rules of origin necessary or appropriate to carry out the KORUS in the HTSUS.

In 2018, the Government of Korea submitted requests to modify certain textile rules of origin based on commercial availability of specific inputs. Following public comment on the proposed rules changes (83 FR 52418, October 17, 2018), the United States and Korea reached agreement to modify the rule of origin concerning certain woven fabrics of HTSUS heading 5408. Pursuant to the KORUS Implementation Act, the U.S. International Trade Commission (USITC) conducted an economic impact review and concluded that the impact on U.S. imports, exports and production of the proposed modifications would be negligible. See USITC Pub. 4917: https://www.usitc.gov/publications/tariff_affairs/pub4917.pdf. The Industry Trade Advisory Committee on Textiles and Clothing did not object to the proposed modifications. Congress also did not object during the consultation and layover process.

In Proclamation 10053 of June 29, 2020 (85 FR 39821, July 1, 2020), the President determined that it was necessary to modify the HTSUS in order to reflect the agreement between the United States and Korea related to the KORUS rules of origin and proclaimed a modification to the HTSUS as set forth in Annex VI of USITC Publication 5060—https://www.usitc.gov/publications/tariff_affairs/pub5060.pdf. Pursuant to Annex VI, this modification is effective the first day of the month following the date on which the U.S. Trade Representative publishes a notice that Korea has completed its applicable procedures to give effect to a corresponding modification to be applied to goods of the United States.

On April 19, 2024, Korea notified the United States that it had completed its applicable domestic procedures to give effect to a corresponding modification to the KORUS rules of origin for certain fabrics of heading 5408 with respect to goods of the United States. Pursuant to Presidential Proclamation 10053 this change takes effect August 1, 2024.

Katherine White,

Chief Textiles and Apparel Negotiator, Office of the United States Trade Representative.
