On January 21, 2022, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent decree with the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico in the lawsuit entitled United States of America v. To Go Stores, LLC, Civil Action No. 3:22-cv-1038.

The United States filed the complaint in this Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) case concurrently with the lodging of the Proposed Consent Decree. The alleged violations include failure to: Adequately monitor for releases; provide adequate spill and overfill prevention equipment; provide and maintain corrosion protection equipment; maintain records; secure monitoring wells; report and investigate suspected releases; and obtain financial assurance.

Under the Proposed Consent Decree, To Go Stores will inspect certain facilities; install new tanks at certain facilities; and install and operate a centralized monitoring system and new release detection equipment, including automatic tank gauging, at 43 facilities in Puerto Rico. To Go Stores will pay a civil penalty of $125,000. The Proposed Consent Decree will resolve all RCRA claims alleged in this action by the United States against To Go Stores.
