

report. The Council took final action on Framework Adjustment 65 to the Northeast Multispecies FMP during its December 2022 meeting. During this January 2023 meeting, the Council will possibly revise the framework's ABCs for Atlantic halibut for fishing years 2023–25 after considering the SSC's recommendations. This is the only issue to be discussed under Framework Adjustment 65. In other groundfish actions, the Council will provide recommendations to GARFO on fishing year 2023 recreational measures for Georges Bank cod, Gulf of Maine cod, and Gulf of Maine haddock. The Council also will receive a progress report on the development of metrics for the review process to evaluate the groundfish monitoring system under Amendment 23. Lastly, the Council will receive an update on the 2023 Atlantic Cod Research Track Assessment and ongoing discussions about cod stock structure. The Council will close out the day with a NOAA Fisheries report on results from the November 14–21, 2022 Annual Meeting of the International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas (ICCAT). The Council also will hear recommendations from the Advisory Committee to the U.S. Section of ICCAT.

The Council will lead off the third day of its meeting with a brief overview of its Risk Policy and provide guidance for its Risk Policy Committee. Then, the Council will discuss and approve its response to the Office of National Marine Sanctuaries' request for information and input on draft regulations for fishing within the proposed Hudson Canyon National Marine Sanctuary. The Ecosystem-Based Fishery Management (EBFM) Committee report will follow. The report will include: (1) a progress report on the prototype Management Strategy Evaluation (pMSE) planning meetings for EBFM and the Georges Bank example Fishery Ecosystem Plan (eFEP); and (2) the EBFM Committee's advice on conducting deep-dive public information workshops for EBFM. The Council next will receive a presentation on the peer-reviewed results of the Research Track Stock Assessments for spiny dogfish and bluefish and then review and approve the Council's harassment prevention policies. Finally, the Council will close out the meeting with other business.
