SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-94031]

Order Granting Application by The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC for an Exemption Pursuant to Section 36(a) of the Exchange Act From the Rule Filing Requirements of Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act With Respect to Certain Rules Incorporated by Reference

January 24, 2022.

The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq" or "Exchange") has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") an application for an exemption under Section 36(a)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act")¹ from the rule filing requirements of Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act² with respect to certain rules of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"), Cboe Exchange, Inc. ("Cboe"), and New York Stock Exchange LLC ("NYSE"), that the Exchange seeks to incorporate by reference.³ Section 36 of the Exchange Act, subject to certain limitations, authorizes the Commission to conditionally or unconditionally exempt any person, security, or transaction, or any class thereof, from any provision of the Exchange Act or rule thereunder, if necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors.

The Exchange has requested, pursuant to Rule 0-12 under the Exchange Act,⁴ that the Commission grant the Exchange an exemption from the rule filing requirements of Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act for changes to the Exchange's rules that are effected solely by virtue of a change to a cross-referenced FINRA, Cboe, or NYSE rule. Specifically, the Exchange requests that it be permitted to incorporate by reference changes made to the FINRA, Cboe, and NYSE rules that are cross-referenced in the Exchange's rules identified below, without the need for the Exchange to file separately similar proposed rule changes pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act:⁵

- The Exchange represents that the FINRA, Cboe, and NYSE rules listed above are regulatory rules and not trading rules.⁶ The Exchange represents that, as a condition to the requested exemption from Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act, the Exchange will provide written notice to its members whenever FINRA, Cboe, or NYSE proposes a change to a cross-referenced rule.⁷ The Exchange states that such notice will alert its members and persons associated with a member to the proposed FINRA, Cboe, or NYSE rule change and give them an opportunity to comment on the proposal.⁸ The Exchange further represents that it will inform members in writing when the Commission approves any such proposed rule changes.⁹

According to the Exchange, this exemption is appropriate because it would result in the Exchange's rulebook being consistent with the relevant cross-referenced FINRA, Cboe, and NYSE rules at all times, thus ensuring consistent regulation of joint members of Nasdaq, FINRA, Cboe, and NYSE.¹⁰ The Exchange further states that, even if members are not joint members of Nasdaq, FINRA, Cboe, and NYSE, the exemption is appropriate because it will permit its rules to remain consistent with FINRA's, Cboe's, and NYSE's rules and ensure consistent treatment of industry members with respect to the aforementioned rules.¹¹

The Commission has issued exemptions similar to the Exchange's request.¹² In granting similar exemptions, the Commission stated that it would consider similar future exemption requests, provided that:

- An SRO wishing to incorporate rules of another SRO by reference has submitted a written request for an order exempting it from the requirement in Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act to file proposed rule changes relating to the rules incorporated by reference, has identified the applicable originating SRO(s), together with the rules it wants to incorporate by reference, and otherwise has complied with the procedural requirements set forth in the Commission's release governing procedures for requesting exemptive

orders pursuant to Rule 0–12 under the Exchange Act;¹³

- The incorporating SRO has requested incorporation of categories of rules (rather than individual rules within a category) that are not trading rules (e.g., the SRO has requested incorporation of rules such as margin, suitability, or arbitration); and

- The incorporating SRO has reasonable procedures in place to provide written notice to its members each time a change is proposed to the incorporated rules of another SRO.¹⁴

The Commission believes that the Exchange has satisfied each of these conditions. The Commission also believes that granting the Exchange an exemption from the rule filing requirements under Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act will promote efficient use of the Commission's and the Exchange's resources by avoiding duplicative rule filings based on simultaneous changes to identical rule text sought by more than one SRO.¹⁵ The Commission therefore finds it appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors to exempt the Exchange from the rule filing requirements under Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act with respect to the above-described FINRA, Cboe, and NYSE rules it has incorporated by reference. This exemption is conditioned upon the Exchange promptly providing written notice to its members whenever FINRA, Cboe, or NYSE changes a rule that the Exchange has incorporated by reference.

Accordingly, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 36 of the Exchange Act,¹⁶ that the Exchange is exempt from the rule filing requirements of Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act solely with respect to changes to the rules identified in the Exemptive Request, provided that the Exchange promptly provides written notice to its members whenever FINRA, Cboe, or NYSE proposes to change a rule that the Exchange has incorporated by reference.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34–94037; File No. SR–BX–2022–002]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Nasdaq BX, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change To Amend References to FINRA Continuing Education Fees

January 24, 2022.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),¹ and Rule 19b–4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on January 12, 2022, Nasdaq BX, Inc. (“BX” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III, below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend BX's Pricing Schedule at Equity 7, Section 30, Regulatory, Registration and Processing Fees, to reflect adjustments to FINRA Continuing Education Fees.

The Exchange also proposes technical amendments to BX Options 7, Section 1, General Provisions.

While the changes proposed herein are effective upon filing, the Exchange has designated the new Maintaining Qualifications Program (“MQP”) Fee, elimination of the $100 Continuing Education Session Fee, and technical amendments to become operative on January 31, 2022. Additionally, the Exchange designates an $18 Continuing Education Regulatory Element Session Fee to become operative on January 1, 2023.³

The text of the proposed rule change is available on the Exchange's website at <https://listingcenter.nasdaq.com/rulebook/bx/rules>, at the principal office of the Exchange, and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the Exchange included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

This proposal amends BX's Pricing Schedule at Equity 7, Section 30, Regulatory, Registration and Processing Fees, to reflect adjustments to FINRA Continuing Education Fees.⁴ The FINRA fees are collected and retained by FINRA via Web CRD for the registration of employees of BX Members that are not FINRA members (“Non-FINRA members”). The Exchange is merely listing these fees on its Pricing Schedule. The Exchange does not collect or retain these fees.

Today, BX Equity 7, Section 30, provides a list of FINRA Web CRD Fees, Fingerprint Processing Fees, and Continuing Education Fees. The Exchange proposes to amend the Continuing Education Fees within Equity 7, Section 30 on behalf of the Exchange. The fees listed within Equity 7, Section 30 reflect fees set by FINRA.

Specifically, the Exchange proposes to decrease the $55 Continuing Education Web-based Fee to $18. This amendment is made in accordance with a recent FINRA rule change to adjust to its fees.⁵

⁴ FINRA operates Web CRD, the central licensing and registration system for the U.S. securities industry. FINRA uses Web CRD to maintain the qualification, employment and disciplinary histories of registered associated persons of broker-dealers.

⁵ See note 3 above. On September 21, 2021, the SEC approved amendments to FINRA Rules 1210 (Registration Requirements) and 1240 (Continuing Education Requirements) to, among other things, require registered persons to complete the Regulatory Element of CE annually by December 31 of each year, rather than every three years, and to complete Regulatory Element content for each representative or principal registration category that they hold. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 93097 (September 21, 2021), 86 FR 53358 (September 27, 2021) (Order Approving File No. SR-FINRA-2021-015). The Regulatory Element is
