

Because the information is coming directly from the employer through Equifax, we will receive timely and accurate wage and employment reporting and will be able to administer SSDI benefits and SSI payments more efficiently.

- Needed to prevent improper payments of SSDI and SSI benefits.
 - As indicated above, we do not always receive timely reports of changes that could affect SSDI entitlement, SSI eligibility, or SSI benefit amounts, and this may cause improper payments. Requirements to verify wages may also cause delays that lead to improper payments. Changes in a person's work and wages are a leading cause of improper payments in the SSDI and SSI programs. While we use a number of sources to verify wage amounts, verifying wages is currently a manual process, and we continue to rely on beneficiaries to self-report wages.⁹ With automated information exchanges, we will be able to obtain the wage and employment records timely and without the need for additional verification from other sources.

Data Elements

The information exchange will require SSA and Equifax to exchange specific data elements. We will send the data elements below to Equifax to ensure we are requesting employment and wage information for the correct individual and timeframe. Equifax and SSA will use a federally compliant, secure means to exchange data and conduct the automated comparison of SSA to Equifax records under this information exchange.

In order to request wage and employment information, we will provide the following information from the Supplemental Security Income Record and Special Veterans Benefits for SSI¹⁰ and the eWork for SSDI¹¹ to Equifax:

- (1) Social Security number (SSN) of the beneficiary, recipient, or deemor;
 - (2) Start date and end date (month and year) of wage and employment information being requested;
 - (3) Tracking identification number.
- (In response to our request, Equifax will provide the following wage and employment information to us, if available:

- (1) Wage earner's SSN

- (2) Wage earner's first name
- (3) Wage earner's last name
- (4) Employer name
- (5) Employer identification number
- (6) Employer address
- (7) Transmission date of wage and employment response from Equifax to us
- (8) Date of payment
- (9) Amount of gross pay
- (10) Frequency of pay
- (11) Pay period begin and end date
- (12) Year-to-date gross wage amount
- (13) Applicable deductions, including but not limited to the following:
 - a. Federal, state and local taxes
 - b. Federal Insurance Contributions Act taxes
 - c. Medicare taxes
 - d. Garnishment
 - e. Cafeteria plans
- (14) Employer telephone number
- (15) Wage earner's job title
- (16) Employment begin date
- (17) Employment end date
- (18) Amount of net pay
- (19) Pay rate
- (20) Hours worked per pay period

Request for Comments

We are requesting comments concerning the specifics of our proposal to implement an information exchange under section 824 of the BBA. We ask that, in preparing comments, you address questions such as:

1. Have we identified the appropriate design for an information exchange?
2. Are there any additional operational elements of an information exchange that we should include?

We will not respond to your comments, but we will consider them as we review our plan to implement the information exchange under section 824 of the BBA.
