

requires the Bureau to suspend you from participating in any activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries fund mechanism, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the schools and libraries fund mechanism, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the schools and libraries support mechanism.²² Your suspension becomes effective upon the earlier of your receipt of this letter or publication of notice in the Federal Register.²³

Suspension is immediate pending the Bureau's final debarment determination. In accordance with the Commission's debarment rules, you may contest this suspension or the scope of this suspension by filing arguments in opposition to the suspension, with any relevant documentation. Your request must be received within 30 days after you receive this letter or after notice is published in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.²⁴ Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.²⁵ The Bureau may reverse or limit the scope of suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.²⁶ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Bureau will decide any request for reversal or modification of suspension within 90 days of its receipt of such request.²⁷

II. Initiation of Debarment Proceedings

Your conviction of criminal conduct in connection with the E-Rate program, in addition to serving as a basis for immediate suspension from the program, also serves as a basis for the initiation of debarment proceedings against you. Your conviction falls within the categories of causes for debarment defined in section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.²⁸ Therefore, pursuant to section 54.8(a)(4) of the Commission's rules, your conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against you.

As with your suspension, you may contest debarment or the scope of the proposed debarment by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within 30 calendar days of the earlier of the receipt of this letter or of publication in the Federal Register.²⁹ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Bureau will debar you.³⁰ Within 90 days of receipt of any opposition to your suspension and proposed debarment, the Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will provide you with notice of its decision to debar.³¹ If the Bureau decides to debar you, its decision will become effective upon the earlier of your receipt of a debarment notice or publication of the decision in the Federal Register.³²

If and when your debarment becomes effective, you will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism for at least three years from the date of debarment.³³ The Bureau may, if necessary to protect the public interest, extend the debarment period.³⁴

Re: Notice of Debarment, File No. EB-08-IH-5312

Dear Mr. Bohuchot: Pursuant to section 54.8 of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission (the "Commission"), by this Notice of Debarment you are debarred from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism (or "E-Rate program") for a period of three years.¹

On February 26, 2009, the Enforcement Bureau (the "Bureau") sent you a Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceedings (the "Notice of Suspension").² That Notice of Suspension was published in the Federal Register on March 19, 2009.³ The Notice of Suspension suspended you from the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism and described the basis for initiation of debarment proceedings against you, the applicable debarment procedures, and the effect of debarment.⁴

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, any opposition to your suspension or its scope or to your proposed debarment or its scope had to be filed with the Commission no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the earlier date of your receipt of the Notice of Suspension or publication of the Notice of Suspension in the Federal Register.⁵ The Commission did not receive any such opposition.

As discussed in the Notice of Suspension, the United States District Court in Texas sentenced you to serve eleven years in prison following your conviction of federal crimes, including conspiracy to commit bribery involving federal funds, conspiracy to launder monetary instruments, multiple counts of bribery involving federal funds, and other related offenses, in connection with your participation in the E-Rate program.⁶ Evidence at trial demonstrated that, in your position as the former Chief Technology Officer of the Dallas Independent School District ("DISD"), you participated in a bribery and money laundering scheme involving DISD technology projects, including a contract that involved E-Rate funds.⁷ Such conduct constitutes the basis for your debarment, and your conviction falls within the categories of causes for debarment under section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.⁸ For the foregoing reasons, you are hereby debarred for a period of three years from the debarment date, i.e., the earlier date of your receipt of this Notice of Debarment or its publication date in the Federal Register.⁹ Debarment excludes you, for the debarment period, from activities "associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism," including "the receipt of funds or discounted services through the schools and libraries support mechanism, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the schools and libraries support mechanism."¹⁰

Re: Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceedings, File No. EB-08-IH-5312

Dear Mr. Bohuchot: The Federal Communications Commission ("FCC" or "Commission") has received notice of your conviction of federal crimes, including conspiracy to commit bribery, conspiracy to launder monetary instruments, multiple counts of bribery concerning programs receiving federal funds, obstruction of justice and making false statements on tax returns, in connection with your participation in the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism ("E-Rate program").¹¹ Consequently, pursuant to 47 CFR § 54.8, this letter constitutes official notice of your suspension from the E-Rate program. In addition, the Enforcement Bureau ("Bureau") hereby notifies you that we are commencing debarment proceedings against you.¹²

I. Notice of Suspension

The Commission has established procedures to prevent persons who have "defrauded the government or engaged in similar acts through activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism" from receiving the benefits associated with that program.¹³ On November 12, 2008, the United States District Court in Texas sentenced you to serve eleven years in prison following your conviction of federal crimes, including conspiracy to commit bribery involving federal funds, conspiracy to launder monetary instruments, multiple counts of bribery involving federal funds, and other related offenses in connection with your participation in the E-Rate program.¹⁴ In addition, you and a co-

¹¹ See 18 U.S.C. §§ 371 (conspiracy to bribery involving federal programs), 666(a)(1)(B) and 2 (bribery concerning programs receiving federal funds and aiding and abetting), 1512(c) (obstructing and impeding an official proceeding), and 1956(h) (conspiracy to launder monetary instruments) and 26 U.S.C. § 7206(1) (false statements on a tax return). Any further reference in this letter to "your conviction" refers to your thirteen count conviction. United States v. Ruben B. Bohuchot, Criminal Docket No. 3:07-CR-00167-L-1, Judgment (N.D. ¹² 47 CFR § 54.8; 47 CFR § 0.111 (delegating to the Enforcement Bureau authority to resolve universal service suspension and debarment proceedings). The Commission adopted debarment rules for the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism in 2003. See Schools and Libraries Universal Service Support Mechanism, Second Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 18 FCC Rcd 9202 (2003) ("Second Report and Order") (adopting section 54.521 to suspend and debar parties from the E-rate program). In the Notice of Suspension, the Bureau referred to your frauds as being associated with E-Rate Funding Year 2002. See Notice of Suspension at 2448. The proper funding year associated with your fraud is E-Rate Program 6 and should be noted as Funding Year 2003. See *United States v. Ruben B. conspirator will have to forfeit approximately $1 million as a result of your conviction.¹⁵

As the former Chief Technology Officer of the Dallas Independent School District ("DISD"), you were in charge of procuring technology contracts for DISD. In this position, you participated in a bribery and money laundering scheme involving DISD technology projects, including a contract that involved E-Rate funds for Funding Year 2002 ("E-Rate FY 2002 Contract").¹⁶ Specifically, you provided assistance to the efforts of your co-defendant, Frankie Logyang Wong ("Mr. Wong"), former co-owner and president of Micro Systems Engineering, Inc. ("MSE"),¹⁷ which enabled MSE to obtain a contract to provide E-Rate services to DISD.¹⁸ In exchange for your role in helping MSE obtain the E-Rate FY 2002 Contract, you received bribes that included extensive access to and control of large sports-fishing vessels, payment for numerous vacations and various entertainment services, and cash that you attempted to disguise as repayments from another individual for living expenses.¹⁹ MSE received at least $35 million in aggregate revenue from DISD and the Universal Service Administrative Company as a result of its participation in the DISD E-Rate FY 2002 Contract.²⁰

Pursuant to section 54.8(a)(4) of the Commission's rules,²¹ your conviction requires the Bureau to suspend you from participating in any activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries fund mechanism, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the schools and libraries fund mechanism, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the schools and libraries support mechanism.²² Your suspension becomes effective upon the earlier of your receipt of this letter or publication of notice in the Federal Register.²³

Suspension is immediate pending the Bureau's final debarment determination. In accordance with the Commission's debarment rules, you may contest this suspension or the scope of this suspension by filing arguments in opposition to the suspension, with any relevant documentation. Your request must be received within 30 days after you receive this letter or after notice is published in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.²⁴ Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.²⁵ The Bureau may reverse or limit the scope of suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.²⁶ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the Bureau will decide any request for reversal or modification of suspension within 90 days of its receipt of such request.²⁷

II. Initiation of Debarment Proceedings

Your conviction of criminal conduct in connection with the E-Rate program, in addition to serving as a basis for immediate suspension from the program, also serves as a basis for the initiation of debarment proceedings against you. Your conviction falls within the categories of causes for debarment defined in section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.²⁸ Therefore, pursuant to section 54.8(a)(4) of the Commission's rules, your conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against you.

As with your suspension, you may contest debarment or the scope of the proposed debarment by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within 30 calendar days of the earlier of the receipt of this letter or of publication in the Federal Register.²⁹ Absent extraordinary circumstances, the

Bureau will debar you.³⁰ Within 90 days of receipt of any opposition to your suspension and proposed debarment, the Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will provide you with notice of its decision to debar.³¹ If the Bureau decides to debar you, its decision will become effective upon the earlier of your receipt of a debarment notice or publication of the decision in the Federal Register.³²

If and when your debarment becomes effective, you will be prohibited from participating in activities associated with or related to the schools and libraries support mechanism for at least three years from the date of debarment.³³ The Bureau may, if necessary to protect the public interest, extend the debarment period.³⁴

Synopsis of the Order

1. On October 10, 2008, the Media Bureau issued a Memorandum Opinion and Hearing Designation Order ("HDO") referring the above-captioned matters to an Administrative Law Judge for recommended decisions. 73 FR 65312, November 3, 2008. In the HDO, the Media Bureau directed an ALJ to resolve the factual disputes with respect to the claims in each of the above-captioned cases and to "return a recommended decision and a recommended remedy, if necessary, to the Commission * * *." See id. at 65327-28. The HDO also stated that, upon receipt of the ALJ's recommended decision and remedy, the Commission would make the requisite legal determinations and decide upon appropriate remedies, if necessary. See id. The HDO failed to specify whether parties are entitled to file exceptions to the ALJ's recommended decision. We issue this Order, sua sponte, to remove uncertainty surrounding this issue and clarify that parties are entitled to file exceptions to the ALJ's recommended decision. We direct parties that choose to file exceptions to comply with the procedures and deadlines set forth in Sections 1.276 and 1.277 of the Commission's rules.
