Agricultural Marketing Service

[Doc. No. AMS-FGIS-22-0020]

Award of Designations and Designation Amendments to Class X or Class Y Weighing Services Under the United States Grain Standards Act

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Notice of designation awards.

SUMMARY: The Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) is announcing designation awards of Amarillo Grain Exchange, Inc. (Amarillo); J.W. Barton Grain Inspection Service, Inc. (Barton); Cairo Grain Inspection Agency, Inc. (Cairo); Champaign-Danville Grain Inspection Departments, Inc. (Champaign); Detroit Grain Inspection Service, Inc. (Detroit); Eastern Iowa Grain Inspection and Weighing Service, Inc. (Eastern Iowa); Enid Grain Inspection Company, Inc. (Enid); Farwell Commodity and Grain Services, Inc. (Farwell Southwest); Fremont Grain Inspection Department, Inc. (Fremont); Keokuk Grain Inspection Service (Keokuk); Louisiana Department of Agriculture and Forestry (Louisiana); Michigan Grain Inspection Services, Inc. (Michigan); Omaha Grain Inspection Service, Inc. (Omaha); Maryland Department of Agriculture (Maryland); North Carolina Department of Agriculture (North Carolina); North Dakota Grain Inspection Services, Inc. (North Dakota); Northeast Indiana Grain Inspection, Inc. (Northeast Indiana); Northern Plains Grain Inspection Service, Inc. (Northern Plains); Plainview Grain Inspection and Weighing Service, Inc. (Plainview); D. R. Schaal Agency, Inc. (Schaal); Sioux City Inspection and Weighing Service Company (Sioux City); State Grain Inspection, Inc. (State Grain); and Utah Department of Agriculture and Food (Utah) to provide official services under the United States Grain Standards Act (USGSA), as amended. The West Lafayette, Indiana area previously serviced by Titus Grain Inspection, Inc. (Titus), will now be serviced by two current official agencies: Champaign and North Dakota, as detailed below. AMS also announces that the designations of Plainview and Sioux City are amended to include Class X and Class Y weighing services.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the July 7, 2017, Federal Register (82 FR 30818), AMS announced the designation of Plainview to provide official services under the USGSA, effective April 1, 2017, to March 31, 2022. Subsequently, Plainview asked AMS to amend their designation to include official weighing services. The USGSA authorizes the Secretary to designate authority to perform official weighing to an agency providing official inspection services within a specified geographic area if such agency is qualified under 7 U.S.C. 79. Under 7 U.S.C. 79(a), AMS evaluated information regarding the designation criteria in 7 U.S.C. 79 and determined that Plainview is qualified to provide official weighing services in their currently assigned geographic area. Therefore, Plainview's designation is amended to include Class X or Class Y weighing within their assigned geographic area, effective January 1, 2022. Interested persons may obtain official services by contacting Plainview at (806) 293-1364.

In the July 15, 2020, Federal Register (85 FR 42819), AMS requested applications and public comment for designation to provide official services in the geographic area presently serviced by North Dakota.

In the February 22, 2021, Federal Register (86 FR 10530-10531), AMS requested applications and public comment for designation to provide official services in the geographic areas presently serviced by Champaign, Detroit, Eastern Iowa, Enid, Keokuk, Michigan, Omaha, Fremont, Maryland, Amarillo, Cairo, Louisiana, North Carolina, Schaal, and Utah.

In the October 21, 2021, Federal Register (86 FR 58247), AMS requested applications for designation and public comment on the quality of service provided by the official agencies in the geographic areas presently serviced by Northeast Indiana, State Grain, Barton, Farwell Southwest, Northern Plains, Plainview, and Sioux City.

The current official agencies for Amarillo; Barton; Cairo; Champaign; Detroit; Eastern Iowa; Enid; Farwell Southwest; Keokuk; Michigan; Omaha; Fremont; Louisiana; Maryland; Northeast Indiana; Northern Plains; North Carolina; North Dakota; Plainview; Schaal; State Grain; and Utah were the only applicants for designation to provide official services in the areas open for designation.

The official agency previously servicing the West Lafayette, Indiana, geographic area (Titus Grain Inspection, Inc. (Titus)) did not seek to reapply for this area. In the June 28, 2021, Federal Register, 86 FR 33967, AMS asked persons interested in providing official U.S. Grain Standards Act services in this geographic area to apply. This area was applied for by two applicants: Champaign-Danville Grain Inspection Departments (Champaign) and North Dakota Grain Inspection Service, Inc. (North Dakota), which both applied for the entire West Lafayette, Indiana territory. Both applicants are designated agencies in good standing with AMS and the industry.

In analyzing the applications for the West Lafayette, Indiana, geographic area, AMS evaluated the designation criteria in sec. 7(f) of the USGSA, a recent audit report for each applicant detailing the applicant's performance of the designation criteria and customers' experience with the official service provider, public comments received related to the designation opportunity notice, exceptions previously assigned to the geographic area being applied for, as well as details provided in the application. Applications generally include information on an applicant's business plan to service the area, active licenses and service availability, fees, overall service costs, and proximity to customers and facilities.

Both Champaign and North Dakota are meeting the designation criteria established under the USGSA, and are operating with comparable costs for most service requests. In consideration of this, AMS determined that splitting the West Lafayette, Indiana, geographic area between the two applicants is the best option. By splitting the geographic area between the applicants, and assigning them to the contiguous areas of their existing designations, they are better able to serve the new territory. Accordingly, each applicant is awarded a newly defined geographic area. The new area allows for an expansion of each applicant's existing geographic area without overlapping boundaries or isolating customers or territory within another official service provider's geographic area. Originally, the West Lafayette, Indiana, geographic area that was designated to Titus included permanent exceptions (designated grain elevators) that were located within both Champaign's and North Dakota's geographic areas. Now, all permanent exception locations originally designated to Titus are awarded to the applicant in whose geographic area the facilities are located.

The territory has been divided and awarded in part to two official agencies: Champaign-Danville Grain Inspection Department, Inc., and North Dakota Grain Inspection Service, Inc. Updated Appendix A geographic areas are listed below:

- Champaign-Danville Grain Inspection Department: In Indiana: Benton (east of U.S. Route 41), Jasper (south of U.S. Route 24), Newton (east of State Route 55 and south of U.S. Route 24), Pulaski; Warren (east of U.S. Route 41), and White Counties.
- North Dakota Grain Inspection Service, Inc.: In Indiana: Carroll (north of State Route 25), Fountain (east of U.S. Route 41), and Tippecanoe Counties.

In the October 22, 2021, notice published in the Federal Register (86 FR 58247), AMS asked persons interested in providing official U.S. Grain Standards Act services to the Sioux City, Iowa, designation area to apply. AMS received two applications for this area: Sioux City and Schaal.

Sioux City applied for the entire geographic area, and Schaal applied for elevators that were designated under Sioux City as permanent exceptions but physically located within Schaal's geographic area description. Both applicants are designated agencies in good standing with AMS and the industry. The dually applied-for elevators include:

- In Iowa, Maxyfield Coop—Algona, Kossuth County; Stateline Coop—Burt, Kossuth County; Gold-Eagle—Goldfield and North Central Coop—Holmes, Wright County; Agvantage F.S.—Chapin, Franklin County; and Five Star Coop—Rockwell, Cerro Gordo County.

In analyzing the applications for the Sioux City, Iowa, geographic area, AMS evaluated the designation criteria in sec. 7(f) of the USGSA, a recent audit report for each applicant detailing the applicant's performance of the designation criteria and customers' experience with the official service provider, public comments received related to the designation opportunity notice, and exceptions previously assigned to the geographic area being applied for, as well as details provided in the application. Applications generally include information on an applicant's business plan to service the area, active licenses and service availability, fees, overall service costs, and proximity to customers and facilities.

AMS determined that awarding the six specified elevator locations to Schaal and the remaining geographical area to the incumbent, Sioux City, is the best manner to continue servicing the area. Of the six elevator locations identified, only Stateline Coop and AgVantage FS are currently active. The six forementioned elevator locations are physically located within the boundaries of Schaal's geographic area description, since this designation area commenced as noted in the May 21, 1980, notice in the Federal Register, 45 FR 34245. However, these elevator locations were designated to other entities at the time the original geographic areas were assigned. Over the past four decades, the original servicing entities have changed and ultimately were replaced by Sioux City.

Through an FGIS pilot program in 1995, and per customer request, Schaal was permitted to service the two active elevators. Subsequently, the 2018 Appropriations Bill again affected how exceptions were managed, and Schaal was permitted to continue servicing those elevators under non-use-of-service exceptions as requested by its customers.

At the time the Sioux City, Iowa, designation area opportunity notice published, Sioux City was not providing official services for any of the six specified elevator locations located within Schaal's geographic area description. Current customers were satisfied with Schaal's service. Considering all available information and factors, as identified above, AMS determined that these excepted elevators would be awarded and designated to Schaal as applied for and as currently being serviced.

Effective April 1, 2022, these elevators were removed from Sioux City's designation area and added to Schaal's designation. The remaining geographic area was awarded to Sioux City effective April 1, 2022.

AMS evaluated the designation criteria in sec. 7(f) of the USGSA (7 U.S.C. 79(f)) and determined, based on its designation reviews, that the following agencies are qualified to provide official services in the specific geographic areas and timeframes noted below:

Sec. 7(f) of the USGSA authorizes the Secretary to designate a qualified applicant to provide official services in a specified area after determining that the applicant is better able than any other applicant to provide such official services (7 U.S.C. 79(f)). A designated agency may provide official inspection services and/or Class X or Class Y weighing services at locations other than port locations. Under sec. 7(g) of the USGSA, designations of official agencies are effective for no longer than five years, unless terminated by the Secretary, and may be renewed according to the criteria and procedures prescribed in sec. 7(f) of the USGSA. See also 7 CFR 800.196 for further information and guidance. If you would like to view the applications for these areas, please contact FGISQACD@usda.gov.

Please note that sampling, weighing, and inspection services may be offered by designated agencies under the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 for other commodities under the auspices of FGIS through separate cooperative agreements with AMS. The service area for such cooperative agreements mirrors the USGSA designation area. For further information, see 7 U.S.C. 1621 et seq. or contact FGISQACD@usda.gov.

Mycotoxin Test Kit Design Specifications and Performance Criteria

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) is announcing its decisions regarding proposed changes to its mycotoxin test kit performance criteria after evaluating public comments received during prior publications in the Federal Register (85 FR 82427 and 86 FR 10531).

DATES: Applicable: November 10, 2022.

ADDRESSES: For access to the AMS mycotoxin test kit criteria, go to <https://www.ams.usda.gov/services/fgis/standardization/tke>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Mycotoxins are toxic chemicals produced by certain fungal species under favorable environmental conditions. Many countries¹ have set maximum allowable concentration levels for specific mycotoxins in food and feed to ensure the safety of consumers. Mycotoxin levels are a critical factor in the trade of grain and quantitative mycotoxin testing is an integral part of buyer-seller contract specifications. Under the authority of the United States Grains Standards Act (7 U.S.C. 71–87k), as amended, and the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (7 U.S.C. 1621–1627), as amended, AMS provides official mycotoxin testing services throughout the United States for domestic and export grains, oilseeds, and processed-grain commodities. Official testing services are provided for aflatoxins, deoxynivalenol, fumonisins, ochratoxin A, and zearalenone. Testing at field locations requires rapid, inexpensive, and accurate methods to effectively assess US grain quality. An essential part of ensuring the quality of official mycotoxin testing is the AMS test kit evaluation program, through which test kits are evaluated and certified for conformance to specific criteria. Only test kits having AMS certification are approved for official mycotoxin testing. AMS establishes the test kit performance criteria and periodically updates them to improve testing accuracy and to meet the official mycotoxin testing program's operational needs.

AMS requested comments from test kit manufacturers and other stakeholders on proposed changes to AMS mycotoxin test kit criteria through a notice that was published in the Federal Register at 85 FR 82427 on December 18, 2020. The original 30-day comment period provided in the notice closed on January 19, 2021. Comments were received from ten stakeholders requesting an extension of the comment period. AMS reopened the comment period in the Federal Register at 86 FR 10531 on February 22, 2021, for 30 days to allow interested persons additional time to review and comment on the notice. The second comment period closed on March 24, 2021. A summary of the public comments, decisions, and future considerations follows.

Minimum Ranges of Conformance

For each mycotoxin, AMS has established a minimum range of concentrations that must be covered in the test kit's scope and conform to AMS accuracy requirements. This range is referred to as the minimum range of conformance. AMS proposed to expand the minimum ranges for fumonisins, ochratoxin A, and zearalenone test kits to meet the current and anticipated future testing needs of the grain industry.

AMS proposed expanding the current minimum range for fumonisins from 0.50–30 parts per million (ppm) to 0.50–100 ppm to provide testing up to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration's highest industry guidance level in corn and corn products. Comments were received from eleven stakeholders. Four stakeholders endorsed this proposal, while two of the four supported the change for corn only. Three stakeholders were against the change, because the grain has no market value at such high levels or because of the difficulty in sourcing large quantities of contaminated grains with 100 ppm fumonisins. Six stakeholders were
