

difference as that for other connectivity fees.

Allowing a CBSX market participant that accesses both CBOE and CBSX via the same Network Access Port to only be assessed the CBOE Network Access Port fee for that port (for Disaster Recovery Network Access Port fees, as well) is reasonable because it allows such CBSX market participants that access both CBOE and CBSX via the same Network Access Port to avoid having to pay two fees for one port. This is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory because there is only one port being accessed, and because it will be applied to all CBSX market participants that access both CBOE and CBSX via the same Network Access Port.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 500-1]

Emerging World Pharma, Inc.; Order of Suspension of Trading

December 6, 2012.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning the securities of Emerging World Pharma, Inc. ("Emerging World"). Emerging World is a Florida corporation purportedly based in Manassas, Virginia and Sunyani, Ghana, and its stock is currently quoted on OTC Link, operated by OTC Markets Group, Inc. under the symbol EWPI. Questions have arisen concerning the adequacy and accuracy of press releases and other public statements concerning Emerging World's business operations and financial condition.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of Emerging World.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the securities of the above-listed company is suspended for the period from 9:30 a.m. EST, on December 6, 2012 through 11:59 p.m. EST, on December 19, 2012.

By the Commission.

Jill M. Peterson,

Assistant Secretary.
