SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is announcing the availability of a guidance for industry entitled “Bladder Cancer: Developing Drugs and Biologics for Adjuvant Treatment.” This guidance provides recommendations to sponsors regarding the development of drugs regulated by Center for Drug Evaluation and Research and Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research for the adjuvant treatment of muscle-invasive bladder cancer. The guidance includes recommendations regarding eligibility criteria, choice of comparator, followup imaging assessments, determination of disease recurrence, analyses of disease-free survival (DFS), and interpretation of trial results. Although FDA may consider endpoints other than DFS for the adjuvant treatment of muscle-invasive bladder cancer, this guidance is focused on cancer trials with DFS as the primary efficacy endpoint.

Adjuvant muscle-invasive bladder cancer clinical trials are an active area of research. There is significant variability in the design, conduct, and analysis of these trials, including the eligibility criteria, radiological disease assessments, the definition of disease recurrence, and the date used to define the DFS endpoint. Consistency in these aspects within and across trials may facilitate interpretation of trial results. These issues were discussed at an FDA–National Cancer Institute public workshop held on November 28, 2017. This guidance provides recommendations on these issues to facilitate adjuvant muscle-invasive bladder cancer clinical trials. This guidance finalizes the draft guidance entitled “Bladder Cancer: Developing Drugs and Biologics for Adjuvant Treatment: issued on October 1, 2020 (85 FR 62309). FDA considered comments received on the draft guidance as the guidance was finalized.

The final guidance includes changes to improve clarity.

This guidance is being issued consistent with FDA’s good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The guidance represents the current thinking of FDA on “Bladder Cancer: Developing Drugs and Biologics for Adjuvant Treatment.” It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.

II. Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

While this guidance contains no collection of information, it does refer to previously approved FDA collections of information. Therefore, clearance by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3501–3521) is not required for this guidance. The previously approved collections of information are subject to review by OMB under the PRA. The collections of information in 21 CFR part 312 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0014; the collections of information in 21 CFR part 314 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0001; and the collections of information in 21 CFR part 601 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0338.
