DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Report by the President's Working Group on Financial Markets on the Long-Term Availability and Affordability of Insurance for Terrorism RiskAGENCY: Department of the Treasury, Departmental Offices.ACTION: Notice; Request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (TRIA),¹ as amended by Section 5(c) of the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2007,² requires the President's Working Group on Financial Markets (President's Working Group) to perform an ongoing analysis of, and to submit a report to Congress³ on, the long-term availability and affordability of insurance for terrorism risk. The Secretary of the Treasury, or his designee, chairs the President's Working Group. The Department of the Treasury (Treasury) issues this notice seeking public comment to assist the President's Working Group in its report.

DATES: Comments must be in writing and received by September 16, 2013. Early submissions are encouraged.

ADDRESSES: Please submit comments electronically through the Federal eRulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>, or by mail (if hard copy, preferably an original and two copies) to the Federal Insurance Office, Attention: Kevin Meehan, Room 1319 MT, Department of the Treasury, 1500 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20220. Because postal mail may be subject to processing delay, it is recommended that comments be submitted electronically. All comments should be captioned with “President's Working Group on Financial Markets: Terrorism Risk Insurance Analysis.” Please include your name, group affiliation, address, email address and telephone number(s) in your comment. Where appropriate, a comment should include a short Executive Summary (no more than five single-spaced pages).

In general, comments received will be posted on <http://www.regulations.gov> without change, including any business or personal information provided. Comments received, including attachments and other supporting materials, will be part of the public record and subject to public disclosure.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Background

TRIA was enacted to address disruptions in the market for insurance for terrorism risk, to help ensure the continued widespread availability and affordability of commercial property and casualty insurance for terrorism risk, and to allow for the private markets to stabilize and build insurance capacity to absorb any future losses for terrorism events. Title I of TRIA creates the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program (Program) that provides shared public and private compensation for privately insured commercial property and casualty losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism. Pursuant to TRIA, the Secretary of the Treasury administers the Program. The Federal Insurance Office assists the Secretary in administering the Program, as authorized by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.⁴ The Program is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2014.

TRIA was originally set to terminate on December 31, 2005. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension Act of 2005⁵ extended the Program for two additional years, with expiration set for December 31, 2007. Section 108(e) of TRIA, as amended by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension Act of 2005, required the President's Working Group to issue a report to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate and the Committee on Financial Services of the House of Representatives about the long-term availability and affordability of terrorism risk, including group life coverage and coverage for nuclear, biological, chemical, and radiological events.⁶ The President's Working Group issued its report in September 2006.⁷

⁵ Public Law 109–144, 119 Stat. 2660.
