Abstract: Regulations at 42 U.S.C. 4601, Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended, require Federal agencies acquiring real estate interests to provide relocation benefits to individuals and businesses displaced as a result of the acquisition. Forms DI–381, Claim For Relocation Payments—Residential, and DI–382, Claim For Relocation Payments—Nonresidential, along with the associated Schedules A, B, C, and D, permit the applicant to present allowable moving expenses and certify occupancy status, after having been displaced because of Federal acquisition of their real property.

The information required is obtained through application made by the displaced person or business to the funding agency for determination as to the specific amount of monies due under the law. The forms, through which application is made, require specific information since the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Act allows for various amounts based upon each actual circumstance. Failure to make application to the agency would eliminate any basis for payment of claims. With this renewal we are making a small revision to item 3 of Schedule D (Reestablishment Expenses—Nonresidential). The form used to require a listing of expenses that are eligible for reimbursement under the law, and now we have provided an itemized list.
