At the request of the State agency and the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information shows that leased workers of Tek Systems and National Engineering Service Corp. were employed on-site at the Amesbury, Massachusetts location of Andrew Corporation FMA, Andrew Facility Massachusetts Division.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers of Tek Systems and National Engineering Service Corp. working on-site at Andrew Corporation AFMA, Andrew Facility Massachusetts Division, Amesbury, Massachusetts.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Andrew Corporation AFMA, Andrew Facility Massachusetts Division, who were adversely affected by a shift in production to Mexico and China.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-60,167 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Andrew Corporation, AFMA, Andrew Facility Massachusetts Division, including on-site leased workers of Andover Personnel, John Galt Services, MMD Temps, Footbridge Engineering, Spherion, Tek Systems and National Engineering Service Corp. who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 26, 2005, through October 6, 2008, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 25th day of October 2006.

Richard Church,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Connecticut General Life Insurance Company (CGLIC), Cigna Healthcare Service Operations, Philadelphia, PA; Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application dated August 17, 2006 a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility for workers and former workers of the subject firm to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA). The denial notice applicable to workers of Connecticut General Life Insurance Company (CGLIC), Cigna Healthcare Service Operations, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania was signed on July 24, 2006 and published in the Federal Register on August 14, 2006 (71 FR 46519).

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) If it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) if it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

(3) if in the opinion of the Certifying Officer, a mis-interpretation of facts or of the law justified reconsideration of the decision.

The TAA petition filed on behalf of workers at Connecticut General Life Insurance Company (CGLIC), Cigna Healthcare Service Operations, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania engaged in computer support for CIGNA's Disability Management IT (support, basic Application development support, coding and systems testing, and customer help desk support) was denied because the petitioning workers did not produce an article within the meaning of Section 222 of the Act.

The petitioner contends that the Department erred in its interpretation of work performed at the subject facility as providing a service and further conveys that workers of the subject firm created various software for sale or lease to customers. The petitioner included the name of a customer who purchased/leased Disability Management software from the subject firm, thus concluding that workers of the subject firm were supporting this customer.
