

Docket: For access to the docket to read background documents or comments received, go to <http://www.regulations.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Agency has initiated a Citizens Academy to inform the public about its mission, focused on participation from local community leaders. The academy will take place in local Agency field offices. Prior to participating, applicants will need to provide information as their community leadership role and provide PII so that a background investigation can be conducted to check for criminal history, open warrants, etc. The application allows for the Agency to gather the information necessary for each applicant to determine if they are eligible for participation. Authority to collect the information sought on this form is derived from title 28 U.S.C. 599A, 28 CFR 0.130, and 18 U.S.C. 3056.

This will be a new collection of information. The Agency has initiated a Citizens Academy for local community members, who will need to fill out an application to express interest and to provide PII for the Agency to initiate a background investigation for the applicants prior to participating in the USSS Citizens Academy. The information will be gathered by electronic submission of the USSS Citizens Academy Application to local Agency Field Offices. Applicant information will also be used to contact any applicants placed on a wait list to join future USSS Citizens Academies.

All information collected will be via electronic submission. The applicant will receive a PDF form via email to complete and submit to the agency. All respondents are individuals, not small businesses/entities.

The collection will only occur one time per year upon initial application to the Agency requesting to participate in the USSS Citizens Academy. There would be no way to reduce the frequency or else community members would not be able to apply for the USSS Citizens Academy. There is no change in the burden as this is a new collection.

While the Agency does not provide any assurance of confidentiality, information provided by the respondents will be protected from disclosure to the extent appropriate under the applicable provisions of the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act of 1974. Personally identifying information will be collected and transmitted in accordance with the Privacy Act. However, to the extent that the information collected is Sensitive Security Information (SSI) as defined in 49 CFR part 1520, Protection of Sensitive Security Information, such information is protected from public disclosure.

The application provides a Privacy Act Statement and requests signed Consent to collect the information. Further, this collection is covered under DHS/ALL-023—Department of Homeland Security Personnel Security Management, which is the baseline system for personnel security activities to ensure that all DHS components follow the same privacy rules for collecting and handling personnel security management records (74 FR 3084, January 16, 2009).

The Office of Management and Budget is particularly interested in comments which:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
2. Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
3. Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
4. Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

Extension and Redesignation of Venezuela for Temporary Protected Status—Correction

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Department of Homeland Security (DHS).

ACTION: Notice; correction.

SUMMARY: This document corrects a technical error that appears in the USCIS notice titled “Extension and Redesignation of Venezuela for Temporary Protected Status” that published in the Federal Register on October 3, 2023. This document aligns and makes consistent the date through which Temporary Protected Status (TPS) will be granted to certain beneficiaries and the validity period of their related employment authorization document (EAD). This correction only affects individuals with an initial Venezuela TPS application (Form I–821) or initial Venezuela TPS-related EAD application (Form I–765) that was pending as of October 3, 2023.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 3, 2023, DHS published a notice in the Federal Register at 88 FR 68130 titled “Extension and Redesignation of Venezuela for Temporary Protected Status.” This document makes a technical correction to that notice (FR Doc. 2023–21865), correcting two incorrect references in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section of the notice. This document aligns the dates that appear in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section with the dates that appears in the DATES section.

The corrections are as follows:

(1) On page 68134, under the section “Required Application Forms and Application Fees To Register or Re-Register for TPS,” USCIS is correcting the date in the third paragraph, second sentence; and

(2) On page 68135, under the section “How can TPS beneficiaries obtain an Employment Authorization Document (EAD)?” USCIS is correcting the date in the first paragraph, sixth sentence regarding the date through which the EAD will be valid if the Form I–765 is approved.

In both instances, the dates should be September 10, 2025, not April 2, 2025. The “continuous residence” date for applicants for TPS under the redesignation of Venezuela remains as July 31, 2023, and is not affected by this document.

Correction

In FR 2023–21865, Federal Register of October 3, 2023, USCIS is correcting the following:

1. On page 68134, third column, third paragraph, second sentence under the section “Required Application Forms and Application Fees To Register or Re-Register for TPS,” is corrected to read as follows:

If USCIS approves an individual’s Form I–821, USCIS will grant the individual TPS through September 10, 2025.

2. On page 68135, second column, fourth sentence, is corrected to read as follows:

If USCIS approves a pending TPS-related Form I–765, USCIS will issue the individual a new EAD that will be valid through September 10, 2025.

Federal Register Liaison, U.S. Department of Homeland Security.
