Proposed Project: Rapid Assessment of Critical Illness Due to 2009-H1N1 Influenza OMB No. 0990-New—Office of the Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (ASPR), Office of Preparedness and Emergency Operations (OPEO).

Abstract: The Office of the Secretary (OS) is requesting emergency action for this clearance by the Office of Management and Budget no later than August 28, 2009. ASPR is requesting emergency processing procedures for this application because this information is needed immediately to help reduce morbidity and mortality from 2009-H1N1 by providing near real-time critical care data streams and analyses to strengthen our response to 2009-H1N1 influenza. Specifically, HHS officials will use this information to inform up-to-date clinical practice guidance to front-line clinicians. Also, this data will be used by HHS to guide resource planning actions to assure that healthcare systems have optimal access to treatments and supportive care medical material for critically ill patients. Lastly, this data stream network can serve as platform for which to build critical care clinical trials for H1N1. The overarching purpose of this initiative is to better understand critical illness in 2009-H1N1 patients and to be able to better respond to the needs of these patients. Currently our main source of data is case reports, which lacks timeliness and sufficient numbers of patients to assure that these non-scientific snapshots represent the broad experience across US ICUs. Collecting patient level data through a research network will allow us to understand the disease course of critically ill patients, what clinical resources they require, and what conditions they may be at increased risk for (e.g., secondary bacterial infections and pulmonary thromboembolism).
