FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[DOCKET NO. 24–17]

Samsung Electronics America, Inc., Complainant, v. Orient Overseas Container Line Limited and OOCL (Europe) Limited, Respondents and Third-Party Complainants, v. Samsung Electronics Company, Ltd., Third-Party Respondent; Notice of Filing of Third-Party Complaint

Served: December 17, 2024.

Notice is given that third-party complaint has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (the “Commission”) by Orient Overseas Container Line Limited and OOCL (Europe) Limited (the “Third-Party Complainants”) against Samsung Electronics Company, Ltd. (the “Third-Party Respondent”). Third-Party Complainants state that the Commission has subject-matter jurisdiction over the complaint pursuant to the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended, 46 U.S.C. 40101 et seq., and personal jurisdiction over Third-Party Respondent as a signatory to the service contracts that gave rise to the claims asserted by Samsung Electronics America, Inc. (the “Complainant”) in this proceeding and within which it was designated as the shipper.

Third-Party Complainant Orient Overseas Container Line Limited is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Hong Kong engaged in business as an ocean common carrier with a principal place of business in Wanchai, Hong Kong.

Third-Party Complainant OOCL (Europe) Limited is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United Kingdom engaged in business as an ocean common carrier with a principal place of business in Levington Suffolk, United Kingdom.

Third-Party Complainants identify Third-Party Respondent as a corporation organized and existing under the laws of South Korea engaged in the global electronics business with a principal place of business in Suwon, South Korea.

Third-Party Complainants allege that Third-Party Respondent violated 46 U.S.C. 41102(a). Third-Party Complainants allege this violation arose due to Third-Party Respondent’s failure to exercise control over, and/or grant of permission to, its affiliate, Complainant, to engage in unjust or unfair devices or means to obtain or attempt to obtain ocean transportation for property at less than the rates or charges that would otherwise apply by demanding refunds and waivers of future charges, and bringing legal proceedings against ocean carriers.

An answer to the third-party complaint must be filed with the Commission within 25 days after the date of service.

The full text of the third-party complaint can be found in the Commission’s electronic Reading Room at <https://www2.fmc.gov/readingroom/proceeding/24-17/>. The initial decision of the presiding judge shall be issued by March 28, 2025, and the final decision of the Commission shall be issued by October 14, 2025.

David Eng,
Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 15, 1984, OMB delegated to the Board authority under the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) to approve and assign OMB control numbers to collections of information conducted or sponsored by the Board. In exercising this delegated authority, the Board is directed to take every reasonable step to solicit comment. In determining whether to approve a collection of information, the Board will consider all comments received from the public and other agencies.

During the comment period for this proposal, a copy of the proposed PRA OMB submission, including the draft reporting form and instructions, supporting statement (which contains more detail about the information collection and burden estimates than this notice), and other documentation, will be made available on the Board's public website at <https://www.federalreserve.gov/apps/reportingforms/review/> or may be requested from the agency clearance officer, whose name appears above. On the page displayed at the link above, you can find the supporting information by referencing the collection identifier, Form MSD-4 or Form MSD-5. Final versions of these documents will be made available at <https://> www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain, if approved.

Request for Comment on Information Collection Proposal

The Board invites public comment on the following information collections, which are being reviewed under authority delegated by the OMB under the PRA. Comments are invited on the following:

- a. Whether the proposed collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the Board's functions, including whether the information has practical utility;
- b. The accuracy of the Board's estimate of the burden of the proposed information collections, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- c. Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
- d. Ways to minimize the burden of information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and
- e. Estimates of capital or startup costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

At the end of the comment period, the comments and recommendations received will be analyzed to determine the extent to which the Board should modify the proposal.

Proposal Under OMB Delegated Authority To Extend for Three Years, Without Revision, the Following Information Collections
