SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Office of Administration maintains the FOIA Management System (FMS2). HUD is publishing this revised notice to establish a new and modified routine use and to reflect updated information in the sections being revised. The modification of the system of records will have no undue impact on the privacy of individuals and updates follow the records collected.

The previous SORN updates include:

1. System Location: Updated to bring the information current.

2. System Manager: Updated to reflect personnel changes.

3. Records Source Categories:

Updated to include the individual's designated representative.

4. Categories of Records in System:

Updated to include date of birth, place of birth, and citizenship.

5. Routine Use of Records in System:

Updated to include the individual's designated representative as a requester of information.

SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER:

FOIA Management System (FMS2), HUD/ADM-11.

SECURITY CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified.

SYSTEM LOCATION:

OPEXUS, 1101 17th Street NW, 12th floor, Washington, DC 20036-0001 and HUD Headquarters, Office of Administration, 451 7th Street SW, Room 10139, Washington, DC 20410-0001.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S):

Ms. Bao-Anh Trinh, Director, FOIA Branch, Office of Administration, 451 7th Street SW, Room 10139, Washington, DC 20410-0001; (202) 402-7641 and Mrs. Sandra J. Wright, System Manager, Office of Administration, 451 7th Street SW, Room 10139, Washington, DC 20410-0001; (202) 402-5510.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

The collection and maintenance of accommodation records are authorized by sections 2 and 7(d) of the Department of Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 3531, 3535(d)), and the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552).

PURPOSES OF THE SYSTEM:

FMS2 will help HUD track correspondence both internally among program offices and externally from outside entities. This system will enable HUD to track FOIA inquiries (both internal and external) submitted to HUD.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Individuals who correspond with the Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Assistant Secretaries, HUD Program Offices, or Field Office officials.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Full name, home address, email address(es), telephone number (work and home), legal documents and records, individual's attorneys or representatives' names, phone number (work and fax), address, and case identifier, date of birth, place of birth, and citizenship.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Records are provided by individuals or their designated representative.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING:

1. To a congressional office from the record of an individual, in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual or their designated representative.

2. To the National Archives and Records Administration, Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), to the extent necessary to fulfill its responsibilities in 5 U.S.C. 552(h), to review administrative agency policies, procedures and compliance with the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), and to facilitate OGIS' offering of mediation services to resolve disputes between persons making FOIA requests and administrative agencies.

3. To contractors, grantees, experts, consultants and their agents, or others performing or working under a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement, or other agreement with HUD, when necessary to accomplish an agency function related to a system of records. Disclosure requirements are limited to only those data elements considered relevant to accomplishing an agency function.

4. To appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: (1) HUD suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (2) HUD has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, HUD (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (3) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with HUD's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm.

5. To another Federal agency or Federal entity, when HUD determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (1) responding to suspected or confirmed breach, or (2) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.

6. To appropriate Federal, State, local, tribal, or other governmental agencies or multilateral governmental organizations responsible for investigating or prosecuting the violations of, or for enforcing or implementing, a statute, rule, regulation, order, or license, where HUD determines that the information would assist in the enforcement of civil or criminal laws and when such records, either alone or in conjunction with other information, indicate a violation or potential violation of law.

7. To a court, magistrate, administrative tribunal, or arbitrator in the course of presenting evidence, including disclosures to opposing counsel or witnesses in the course of civil discovery, litigation, mediation, or settlement negotiations, or in connection with criminal law proceedings; when HUD determines that use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation and when any of the following is a party to the litigation or have an interest in such litigation: (1) HUD, or any component thereof; or (2) any HUD employee in his or her official capacity; or (3) any HUD employee in his or her individual capacity where HUD has agreed to represent the employee; or (4) the United States, or any agency thereof, where HUD determines that litigation is likely to affect HUD or any of its components.

8. To any component of the Department of Justice or other Federal agency conducting litigation or in proceedings before any court, adjudicative, or administrative body, when HUD determines that the use of such records is relevant and necessary to the litigation and when any of the following is a party to the litigation or have an interest in such litigation: (1) HUD, or any component thereof; or (2) any HUD employee in his or her official capacity; or (3) any HUD employee in his or her individual capacity where the Department of Justice or agency conducting the litigation has agreed to represent the employee; or (4) the United States, or any agency thereof, where HUD determines that litigation is likely to affect HUD or any of its components.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORAGE OF RECORDS:

Electronic and Paper.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS:

Madonna L. Baucum, Service Information Collection Clearance Officer, by email at Info_Coll@fws.gov, or by telephone at (703) 358-2503. Individuals in the United States who are deaf, deafblind, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability may dial 711 (TTY, TDD, or TeleBraille) to access telecommunications relay services. Individuals outside the United States should use the relay services offered within their country to make international calls to the point-of-contact in the United States. You may also view the ICR at <https://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA, 44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.) and its implementing regulations at 5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1), all information collections require approval under the PRA. We may not conduct or sponsor and you are not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

As part of our continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burdens, we are again inviting the public and other Federal agencies to comment on new, proposed, revised, and continuing collections of information. This helps us assess the impact of our information collection requirements and minimize the public's reporting burden. It also helps the public understand our information collection requirements and provide the requested data in the desired format.

We are especially interested in public comment addressing the following:

- (1) Whether or not the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether or not the information will have practical utility;
- (2) The accuracy of our estimate of the burden for this collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- (3) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- (4) How might the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of response.

Comments that you submit in response to this notice are a matter of
