

identifying information from public review, ONRR cannot guarantee that it will be able to do so.

Abstract: (a) General Information: ONRR issues orders and assesses civil penalties in performing mineral revenue management responsibilities for the Secretary of the Interior. See U.S. Department of the Interior Departmental Manual, 112 DM 34.1 (Sept. 9, 2020). A person who timely appeals an ONRR order may post a bond or other surety instrument pursuant to 30 CFR part 1243, or, for Federal leases, demonstrate financial solvency pursuant to 30 CFR part 1243, subpart C, to suspend its compliance with the order during the appeal. See 30 CFR 1243.1. Similarly, if an administrative law judge determines that a stay is warranted, the recipient of a civil penalty notice who timely requests a hearing may post a surety instrument or demonstrate financial solvency under these same subparts to stay the assessment or accrual of penalties pending a hearing on the record and decision by the administrative law judge. See 30 CFR 1241.11.

(b) Information Collections: ONRR accepts the following surety types: Form ONRR-4435, Administrative Appeal Bond; Form ONRR-4436, Letter of Credit; Form ONRR-4437, Assignment of Certificate of Deposit; Self-bonding; and U.S. Treasury Securities. See 30 CFR 1210.157. Instructions for submitting these surety instruments or self-bonding are located at <https://www.onrr.gov/document/SuretyInst.pdf>. This ICR covers the burden hours associated with submitting surety instruments and self-bonding pursuant to 30 CFR part 1243 as follows:

(1) Form ONRR-4435, Administrative Appeal Bond: A person using this form of surety supplies various information on the form ONRR-4435, such as its contact information, surety company name and address, and surety amount. The bond must be issued by a qualified surety company approved by the U.S. Department of the Treasury (see Department of the Treasury Circular No. 570, revised periodically in the Federal Register). ONRR maintains the bond in a secure facility.

(2) Form ONRR-4436, Letter of Credit: A person using this form of surety must complete the form ONRR-4436, with no modifications. The person supplies various information on the form, such as bank name and address, bank ABA number, and effective date. ONRR maintains the letter of credit in a secure facility. The person submitting the letter of credit is responsible for verifying that the bank provides a current Fitch rating to ONRR.

(3) Form ONRR-4437, Assignment of Certificate of Deposit: A person seeking to use a Certificate of Deposit (CD) as surety must submit a written request to ONRR to do so. A person using this form of surety supplies various information on the form ONRR-4437, such as the CD number, CD amount, and bank name. ONRR will accept only a book-entry CD that explicitly assigns the CD to ONRR's Director.

(4) U.S. Treasury Securities: A person seeking to use a U.S. Treasury Security ("TS") as surety must submit a written request to ONRR to do so. The TS must be a U.S. Treasury note or bond with maturity equal to or greater than one year. The TS must equal 120 percent of the appealed amount plus 1 year of estimated interest (necessary to protect ONRR against interest rate fluctuations). ONRR only accepts a book-entry TS.

(5) Self-bonding: For Federal oil and gas leases only (not Indian leases), 30 CFR 1243.201 provides that no surety instrument is required when a person periodically demonstrates, to the satisfaction of ONRR, that it is financially solvent or otherwise able to pay the obligation. ONRR requires the person to submit a consolidated balance sheet, subject to annual audit. In some cases, ONRR also requires copies of the most recent tax returns (up to three years).

In addition, the person must annually submit financial statements, subject to audit, to support its net worth. If the person does not have a consolidated balance sheet documenting its net worth, or if it does not meet the $300 million net worth requirement, ONRR will select a business information or credit reporting service to provide information concerning its financial solvency. ONRR charges a $50 fee each time it reviews data from a business information or credit reporting service. The fee covers ONRR's cost to determine financial solvency.
