9000–0082, Federal Acquisition Regulation Part 7 Requirements.

B. Need and Uses

This clearance covers the information that offerors or contractors must submit to comply with the following Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) requirements:

FAR 52.207–3, Right of First Refusal of Employment. This clause requires contractors to provide the contracting officer, within 120 days of beginning contract performance, the names of personnel who were adversely affected or separated from Government employment as a result of the contract award; and subsequently hired by the contractor to perform under the contract within 90 days after contract performance began. The information provided under this clause is used by the Government to ensure contractor compliance with providing the right of first refusal to such affected personnel and that certain obligations to displaced employees are met by the Government.

FAR 52.207–4, Economic Purchase Quantity—Supplies. This provision permits offerors, who believe that acquisition of supplies in quantity different from what is being solicited would be more advantageous to the Government, to recommend with their offer a more economic purchase quantity for the required supplies. The information provided under this provision is used by the Government to acquire supplies at the total and unit costs most advantageous to the Government and to develop a database for future acquisitions of such items of supply.
