SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Public Comment Procedures

We are publishing notice of records schedules in which agencies propose to dispose of records they no longer need to conduct agency business. We invite public comments on these records schedules, as required by 44 U.S.C. 3303a(a), and list the schedules at the end of this notice by agency and subdivision requesting disposition authority.

In addition, this notice lists the organizational unit(s) accumulating the records or states that the schedule has agency-wide applicability. It also provides the control number assigned to each schedule, which you will need if you submit comments on that schedule. We have uploaded the records schedules and accompanying appraisal memoranda to the regulations.gov docket for this notice as "other" documents. Each records schedule contains a full description of the records at the file unit level as well as their proposed disposition. The appraisal memorandum for the schedule includes information about the records.

We will post comments, including any personal information and attachments, to the public docket unchanged. Because comments are public, you are responsible for ensuring that you do not include any confidential or other information that you or a third party may not wish to be publicly posted. If you want to submit a comment with confidential information or cannot otherwise use the regulations.gov portal, you may contact request.schedule@nara.gov for instructions on submitting your comment.

We will consider all comments submitted by the posted deadline and consult as needed with the Federal agency seeking the disposition authority. After considering comments, we may or may not make changes to the proposed records schedule. The schedule is then sent for final approval by the Archivist of the United States. After the schedule is approved, we will post on regulations.gov a "Consolidated Reply" summarizing the comments, responding to them, and noting any changes we made to the proposed schedule. You may elect at regulations.gov to receive updates on the docket, including an alert when we post the Consolidated Reply, whether or not you submit a comment. If you have a question, you can submit it as a comment, and can also submit any concerns or comments you would have to a possible response to the question. We will address these items in consolidated replies along with any other comments submitted on that schedule.

We will post schedules on our website in the Records Control Schedule (RCS) Repository, at <https://www.archives.gov/records-mgmt/rcs>, after the Archivist approves them. The RCS contains all schedules approved since 1973.

Background

Each year, Federal agencies create billions of records. To control this accumulation, agency records managers prepare schedules proposing retention periods for records and submit these schedules for NARA's approval. Once approved by NARA, records schedules provide mandatory instructions on what happens to records when no longer needed for current Government business. The records schedules authorize agencies to preserve records of continuing value in the National Archives or to destroy, after a specified period, records lacking continuing administrative, legal, research, or other value. Some schedules are comprehensive and cover all the records of an agency or one of its major subdivisions. Most schedules, however, cover records of only one office or program or a few series of records. Many of these update previously approved schedules, and some include records proposed as permanent.

Agencies may not destroy Federal records without the approval of the Archivist of the United States. The Archivist grants this approval only after thorough consideration of the records' administrative use by the agency of origin, the rights of the Government and of private people directly affected by the Government's activities, and whether or not the records have historical or other value. Public review and comment on these records schedules is part of the Archivist's consideration process.

I. Supplementary Information

On March 4, 2024, the petitioners filed a petition requesting that the NRC exercise its supervisory authority to order the immediate closure of Diablo Canyon due to "the unacceptable risk of a seismically induced severe accident." An order was issued on March 12, 2024, referring the request to the enforcement petition process under section 2.206 of title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (10 CFR), "Requests for action under this subpart."

On August 27, 2024, the NRC staff issued an Acknowledgement Letter that summarized the evaluation activities of the March 4, 2024, petition, as supplemented on June 7, 2024, and described that the Petition Review Board (PRB) had accepted four specific concerns for further review.

Consistent with Section IV.B "Schedule," of the handbook for NRC Management Directive (MD) 8.11, "Review Process for 10 CFR 2.206 Petitions," and its associated Directive Handbook 8.11, the PRB intended to issue the proposed director's decision for comment within 120 days after issuing the August 27, 2024, acknowledgment letter. On October 24, 2024, Pacific Gas & Electric Company (PG&E) provided a voluntarily submittal to the NRC related to the PRB review of the petition. On October 31, 2024, the petitioners submitted a supplement to the petition. The PRB has considered information in the new supplement and intends to address the following supplemental concerns in the proposed director's decision:

1. PG&E's 2015 and 2024 seismic source characterizations omitted modern deformation modeling and failed to use globally-calibrated strainrate-to-seismicity conversions, that would have prevented their serious underestimates.

2. Additional justification supporting the use of the Noto Peninsula earthquake as a model characteristic thrust earthquake for the Irish Hills.

Consistent with Section III.I.6, "Supplements to the Petition," of the handbook for MD 8.11, the PRB now intends to issue the proposed director's decision for comment within 120 days of the issuance of the supplemental acknowledgement letter.
