May 14, 2004.

The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission) will hold a conference on the overall level of liquidity in wholesale natural gas and electricity markets, the adequacy of natural gas and electricity price formation, the level of reporting of energy transactions to price index developers, and the use of price indices in jurisdictional tariffs. The conference will take place on Friday, June 25, 2004, from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Commission's headquarters, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC. The conference will be conducted by the Commission's Staff but may be attended by members of the Commission. A quorum of the Commission may be present for all or part of the conference. The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) will participate.

Background

On May 5, 2004, the Commission Staff issued a Report on Natural Gas and Electricity Price Indices in which Staff reviewed Commission actions and developments since the issuance of the Commission's Policy Statement on Natural Gas and Electric Price Indices, 104 FERC ¶ 61,121 (2004), including particularly the results of the Commission's March 2004 survey of market participants. The Report identified four broad options for future Commission action and addressed the use of price indices in jurisdictional tariffs, including specific recommendations on price index developers' adherence to Policy Statement standards and the criteria pursuant to which an index may be used in jurisdictional tariffs. The Report also included an extensive technical appendix providing tabulated results of the voluntary survey conducted by the Commission in March 2004.

Staff has held previous conferences and workshops in Docket No. AD03-7 on April 24, 2003, June 24, 2003, July 2, 2003, and in both Dockets on November 4, 2003. Information gathered from such conferences has been of material use to the Commission in understanding the range of issues confronting market participants in their varied uses of energy price indices, and of the uses of indices in jurisdictional tariffs. The June 25 conference will provide all interested parties an opportunity to develop the record further in light of the information and recommendations presented in the Staff Report.

Scope of Conference

The conference is open to discussion of all issues relevant to the formation of natural gas and electricity wholesale prices and the role of price indices both in the price formation process and as used by pipelines and utilities in jurisdictional tariffs. In particular, the Commission is interested in the following subjects:

1. The overall market liquidity context for natural gas and electricity transaction reporting, and an evaluation of the extent to which wholesale energy trading is sufficient to generate reliable price signals for market participants. Many parties commented that improving processes for price reporting and increasing the number of companies reporting their fixed price day-ahead and bid-week transactions, while laudable, still does not address the decline in activity in energy markets, raising the concern that liquidity in these markets is inadequate to generate strong confidence in the prices observed. Parties are invited to comment on trading activity in energy markets and the optimum structures for encouraging robust and transparent trading in natural gas and electricity.

2. Current status of energy transaction reporting to index developers and adequacy and robustness of indices. The Staff Report indicates that about 20 percent of companies surveyed report all of their "reportable" day-ahead and bid-week natural gas transactions and about 10 percent of companies surveyed report all of their day-ahead electricity
