

that are essential to your further performance of work. (Examples of "special conditions" are given below.)

2. Work Effort of Between 3 and 6 Months: If your work lasted more than 3 months, it must have ended or have been reduced to the non-SGA level within 6 months due to your impairment or to the removal of special conditions (see below) related to your impairment that are essential to your further performance of work and:

- a. You must have had frequent absences from your work due to your impairment; or
- b. Your work must have been unsatisfactory due to your impairment; or
- c. Your work must have been done during a period of temporary remission of your impairment; or
- d. Your work must have been done under special conditions.

(To illustrate how UWA time periods are figured, work from November 5, 2003, through a date no later than February 4, 2004, is for "3 months or less." Work from November 5, 2003, through at least February 5, 2004, but through a date no later than May 4, 2004, is for "between 3 and 6 months.")

3. Work Effort of Over 6 Months: Your SGA-level work lasting more than 6 months cannot be an UWA regardless of why it ended or was reduced to the non-SGA level.

4. Performance of Work Under Special Conditions: One situation under which your SGA-level work may have ended, or may have been reduced to the non-SGA level, as set out above, is "the removal of special conditions related to your impairment that are essential to your further performance of work." That is, you may have worked under conditions especially arranged to accommodate your impairment or you may have worked through an unusual job opportunity, such as in a sheltered workshop. Special or unusual conditions may be evidenced in many ways. For example, you:

- a. May have required and received special assistance from other employees in performing the job; or
- b. Were allowed to work irregular hours or take frequent rest periods; or
- c. Were provided special equipment or were assigned work especially suited to your impairment; or
- d. Were able to work only within a framework of especially arranged circumstances, such as where other persons helped you prepare for or get to and from work; or
- e. Were permitted to perform at a lower standard of productivity or efficiency than other employees; or

f. Were granted the opportunity to work, despite your medical condition, because of family relationship, past association with the firm, or other altruistic reason.

5. Development of Reasons for Work Discontinuance or Reduction: When we consider why your work effort ended or was reduced to the non-SGA level, we do not rely solely on information from you. Therefore, if we do not already have impartial supporting evidence, we will seek confirmation from your employer. If the information from your employer is inconclusive or is not available, we may seek confirmation of the reason you discontinued or reduced your work with a physician or other medical source. After being apprised of the circumstances, the physician or other medical source could state whether, in his or her opinion or according to the records, your work discontinuance or reduction was due to your impairment.

Answers to questions such as the following will help to verify the nature and duration of your work and the reason it ended or was reduced:

- a. When and why was the SGA-level work interrupted, reduced or stopped?
- b. If special working conditions (as described in the preceding section) were removed, what were those conditions or concessions? When, how and why were they changed?
- c. Were there frequent absences from work? Were days and hours of work irregular and, if so, why?
- d. Was job performance unsatisfactory because of the impairment?
- e. Did the employer reduce your duties, responsibilities or earnings because of your impairment?
- f. When your work effort ended, was the continuity of employment broken? Did the employer grant sick leave or hold the position open for your return?
- g. If you were self-employed, what has happened to the business since the discontinuance or reduction of your work? If the business continued in operation, who managed and worked in it and what income will you receive from it?
