

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on intra-market competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act because NDXP options with Tuesday and Thursday expirations will be available to all market participants. By listing NDXP options that expire Tuesdays and Thursdays, the proposed rule change will provide all investors that participate in the NDX options market greater trading and hedging opportunities and flexibility to meet their investment and hedging needs.

Additionally, Tuesday and Thursday expiring NDXP options will trade in the same manner as Weekly Expirations currently trade. The Exchange does not believe that the proposal to list NDXP options with Tuesday and Thursday expirations will impose any burden on inter-market competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act because NDX options (including NDXP options) are proprietary Exchange products. Also, Cboe similarly lists Tuesday and Thursday options within their non-standard program.¹⁷ To the extent that the addition of NDXP options that expire on Tuesdays and Thursdays available for trading on the Exchange makes the Exchange a more attractive marketplace to market participants at other exchanges, such market participants are free to elect to become market participants on the Exchange.
