

aspects of organ donation, procurement, allocation, and transplantation and on such other matters as the Secretary determines.

One of its principal functions shall be to advise the Secretary on federal efforts to maximize the number of deceased donor organs made available for transplantation and to support the safety of living organ donation.

On August 26, 2014, the Acting Director, Office of Management, HRSA, approved the ACOT charter to be renewed. The filing date of the renewed charter was September 1, 2014. There were no amendments to the previous charter. Renewal of the ACOT charter gives authorization for the Committee to continue to operate until September 1, 2016.

A copy of the ACOT charter is available on the Web site for the organ transplantation program, at <http://www.organdonor.gov/>. A copy of the charter also can be obtained by accessing the FACA database that is maintained by the Committee Management Secretariat under the General Services Administration. The Web site address for the FACA database is <http://www.facadatabase.gov/>.

Dated: March 3, 2015.

Mary K. Wakefield,
Administrator.
