DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Civil Rights Division

Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; Extension of a currently approved collection; entitled Complaint Form, Coordination and Review

Section, Civil Rights Division, Department of Justice.

The Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Coordination and Review Section, has submitted the following information collection request for review and clearance in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted until November 13, 2000.

Request written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

If you have comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions, or additional information, please contact Merrily A. Friedlander, Chief, Coordination and Review Section, Civil Rights Division, by calling (888) 848-5306 (Voice or TTY), or write her at U.S. Department of Justice, P.O. Box 66560, Washington, DC 20035-6560.
