

9:29:30 a.m., that market participant will be required to send a Trade-or-Move Directed Order to the party it would lock or cross. However, if at or after 9:20 a.m. there is an order being displayed in SIZE, a market participant will not be obligated to send a Trade-or-Move Directed Order to SIZE if they would actively lock/cross SIZE because the system currently cannot route a Trade-or-Move Directed Order to the market participant representing the Non-Attributed Order behind SIZE.⁹ As noted above, Non-Attributable Orders that are represented under SIZE will participate in the lock/cross clearing process that commences at 9:29:30 a.m., and thus will be subject to execution prior to the market's open.

Accordingly, Nasdaq believes that its proposed process will significantly improve the Nasdaq market opening by ensuring that quotes in Nasdaq securities are not locked or crossed at the start of normal trading. In addition, Nasdaq believes that its proposed approach of basing pre-market executions on the prices of individual quotes/orders provides maximum flexibility for market participants to price and potentially execute their own trading interest, while still maintaining an orderly market going into the open.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change, as amended, is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A of the Act,¹⁰ in general and with Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,¹¹ in particular, in that the proposal is designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade, foster cooperation and coordination with persons engaged in processing information with respect to and facilitating transactions in securities, as well as removing impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others

Nasdaq neither solicited nor received written comments with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Within 35 days of the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

A. By order approve such proposed rule change, or

B. Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.¹²

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change, as amended, is consistent with the Act. Persons making written submissions should file six copies thereof with the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-0609. Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the NASD. All submissions should refer to File No. SR-NASD-2002-56 and should be submitted by June 14, 2002.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.¹³

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.
