

ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS:

Security controls used to protect personally identifiable information in FOIAonline are commensurate with those required for an information system rated moderate for confidentiality, integrity, and availability, as prescribed in the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Special Publication, 800–53, “Security and Privacy Controls for Federal Information Systems and Organizations.”

1. Administrative Safeguards: EPA and partner agency users follow annual security training requirements of their organization. Annually, EPA and partner agencies acknowledge and accept “Rules of Behavior” that describe user responsibilities and expected behavior regarding information system usage. Each agency administrator is responsible for ensuring account requests are approved before accounts are created. Each agency administrator is responsible for establishing, activating, modifying, disabling, and removing accounts for their agency and ensuring their established account management protocols are followed. Each agency administrator is responsible for monitoring agency accounts. Each agency administrator is responsible for disabling accounts when accounts are no longer required; when users are terminated or transferred; and when individual information system usage or need-to-know changes. Each agency administrator is responsible for granting access to the system based on: (i) A valid access authorization; (ii) intended system usage; and (iii) other attributes as required by the respective agency.

2. Technical Safeguards: All NIST 800–53 moderate baseline technical safeguards are built into the FOIAonline application and supporting infrastructure including automated account management locks and reset protocols due to inactivity or cyclical renewals. Accounts must be refreshed after 30 business days of inactivity and are disabled after one year of inactivity. Disabled accounts require reactivation by the FOIAonline Help Desk after approval by the agency’s Point of Contact. System administration and technical support accounts include the ability to reinstate accounts that have been disabled. System administration and technical support users are required to follow the system’s rules of behavior and confidentiality requirements defined in contract conditions renewed annually.

3. Physical Safeguards: The Physical Environment control is fully inherited from the Amazon Web Service (AWS) physical data center. AWS provides physical data center access only to approved employees. All employees who need data center access must first apply for access and provide a valid business justification. These requests are granted based on the principle of least privilege, where requests must specify to which layer of the data center the individual needs access and are time-bound. Requests are reviewed and approved by authorized personnel, and access is revoked after the requested time expires. Once granted admittance, individuals are restricted to areas specified in their permissions.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Individuals seeking access to their own personal information in this system of records may be required to provide adequate identification (e.g., driver’s license, military identification card, employee badge or identification card) as dictated by the request receiving agency. Individuals who create accounts in the system have the ability to edit the contact information they provided when submitting a request. Additional identity verification procedures may be required as warranted. Requests must meet the requirements of EPA regulations at 40 CFR part 16.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Requests for correction or amendment must identify the record to be changed and the corrective action sought. Complete EPA Privacy Act procedures are described in EPA’s Privacy Act regulations at 40 CFR part 16.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Any individual who wants to know whether this system of records contains a record about him or her, should make a written request to the Attn: Agency Privacy Officer, MC 2831T, 1200 Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20460, or electronically to privacy@epa.gov.

EXEMPTIONS PROMULGATED FOR THE SYSTEM:

None.
