SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

1. Background

Congress has mandated that the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights' establish an advisory committee in each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. See 42 U.S.C. 1975a. These committees operate under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, as amended, 5 U.S.C. Appendix 2.

2. Scope of Advisory Committee Duties

The committees advise the Commission on matters in its respective locale regarding alleged deprivations of voting rights or discrimination or denials of the equal protection of the laws because of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, or national origin, or in the administration of justice. Committees advise the Commission by conducting public meetings to hear testimony from diverse experts, government officials, advocacy groups, individuals directly impacted, and members of the general public. Committees then forward their advice and recommendations to the Commission.

3. Member Term and Responsibilities

Each advisory committee consists of not more than 19 members, each of whom will serve a four-year term. Members are expected to attend approximately four meetings per year and make a meaningful contribution to the committee's work.

4. Member Selection

The Commission appoints members to advisory committees at their regularly scheduled business meetings. Every effort is made to ensure diverse points of view are represented on each committee. The Commission also appoints the chair of each committee.

5. Member Designation

Members serve as unpaid Special Government Employees who are reimbursed for travel and expenses. As Special Government Employees, Advisory Committee members must follow the executive branch's ethics rules, which includes submitting a conflicts form and notifying Commission staff of any financial conflicts with a proposed topic the committee is evaluating. Members also must take an annual ethics training.

6. Application Requirements

To be eligible to be on an advisory committee, applicants must be residents of the respective state or district, and have demonstrated expertise or interest in civil rights issues. All applicants must complete the on-line application form found at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/S7WCLL6>. The Commission invites any individual who is eligible to be appointed a member of an advisory committee covered by this notice to apply.
