In the Matter of: Luis Martin Camarena, Inmate Number: 19956–480, FCI La Tuna, Federal Correctional Institution, P.O. Box 3000, Anthony, Texas 88021; Order Denying Export Privileges

On September 26, 2019, in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas, Luis Martin Camarena (“Camarena”) was convicted of one count of violating 18 U.S.C. 554(a). Specifically, Camarena was convicted of knowingly and unlawfully concealing, buying, and facilitating the transportation and exportation from the United States to Mexico of two Ruger AR–556 rifles, two Smith and Wesson M&P15 rifles, one Century Arms International Mini-Draco pistol, one Century Arms International C308 rifle, one FNH M249 rifle, and related ammunition. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Camarena to 52 months incarceration, with credit for time served; three years of supervised release; a $5,000 criminal fine; and a $100 court assessment.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Camarena’s conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554. As provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or the “Regulations”), BIS provided notice and opportunity for Camarena to make a written submission to BIS. 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Camarena.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS’s Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Camarena’s export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of Camarena’s conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Camarena had an interest at the time of his conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until September 26, 2029, Luis Martin Camarena, with a last known address of Inmate Number: 19956–480, FCI La Tuna, Federal Correctional Institution, P.O. Box 3000, Anthony, Texas 88021, and when acting for or on his behalf, his successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives (“the Denied Person”), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as “item”) exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or engaging in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or from any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Second, no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) to or on behalf of the Denied Person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to Section 1760(e) of ECRA and Sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Camarena by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.

Fourth, in accordance with Part 756 of the Regulations, Camarena may file an appeal of this Order with the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of Part 756 of the Regulations.

Fifth, a copy of this Order shall be delivered to Camarena and shall be published in the Federal Register.

Sixth, this Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until September 26, 2029.

In the Matter of: Bianca Garcia-Rodriguez, 3134 East 25th Street, Brownsville, TX 78521; Order Denying Export Privileges

On January 8, 2020, in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Bianca Garcia-Rodriguez (“Garcia-Rodriguez”) was convicted of violating 18 U.S.C. 554(a). Specifically, Garcia-Rodriguez was convicted of knowingly attempting to export from the United States to Mexico approximately 3,600 rounds of .223 caliber ammunition, defense articles on the U.S. Munitions List, 22 CFR part 221, in violation of 18 U.S.C. 554. As a result of her conviction, the Court sentenced Garcia-Rodriguez to three years of probation and a $100 assessment.

² The Regulations are currently codified in the Code of Federal Regulations at 15 CFR parts 730–774 (2021).

³ The Director, Office of Export Enforcement, is the authorizing official for issuance of denial orders pursuant to recent amendments to the Regulations (85 FR 73411, November 18, 2020).

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act ("ECRA"),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e) (Prior Convictions). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Garcia-Rodriguez's conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554 and provided notice and opportunity for Garcia-Rodriguez to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations the "Regulations"). 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Garcia-Rodriguez.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS's Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Garcia-Rodriguez's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of five years from January 8, 2020, the date of Garcia-Rodriguez's conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Garcia-Rodriguez had an interest at the time of her conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until January 8, 2025, Bianca Garcia-Rodriguez, with a last known address of 3134 East 25th Street, Brownsville, TX 78521, and when acting for or on her behalf, her successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives ("the Denied Person"), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or engaging in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or from any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Second, no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) to or on behalf of the Denied Person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the ECRA (50 U.S.C. 4819(e)) and Sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Garcia-Rodriguez by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.

Fourth, in accordance with Part 756 of the Regulations, Garcia-Rodriguez may file an appeal of this Order with the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of Part 756 of the Regulations.

Fifth, a copy of this Order shall be delivered to Garcia-Rodriguez and shall be published in the Federal Register.

Sixth, this Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until January 8, 2025.
