

workers produce diaries, day planners and calendars.

New information provided by a State agency representative and a company official shows that workers producing diaries, day planners and calendars are not separately identifiable among those products but are separately identifiable from workers in other divisions at the Lewiston, Maine plant.

Accordingly, the certification is being limited to the workers of Geiger Bros, Inc., Lewiston, Maine, engaged in employment related to the production of diaries, day planners and calendars, not all workers of the firm.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-51,402 is hereby issued as follows:

Workers of Geiger Bros, Inc., Lewiston, Maine, engaged in employment related to the production of diaries, day planners and calendars, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 31, 2002, through April 16, 2005, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 9th day of July, 2003.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Honeywell, Incorporated Advanced Circuits Division Including Leased Workers of TekSystems, Minnetonka, MN; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 13, 2002, applicable to workers of Honeywell, Incorporated, Advanced Circuits Division, Minnetonka, Minnesota. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 28, 2002 (67 FR 9327).

At the request of the petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Information provided by the company shows that leased workers of TekSystems were employed at Honeywell, Incorporated, Advanced Circuits Division, were engaged in employment related to the production of multilayer printed circuit boards at the Minnetonka, Minnesota location of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include leased workers of TekSystems employed at Honeywell, Incorporated, Advanced Circuits Division, Minnetonka, Minnesota.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Honeywell, Incorporated, Advanced Circuits Division, who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-39,281 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Honeywell, Incorporated, Advanced Circuits Division, Minnetonka, Minnesota, and leased workers of TekSystems engaged in employment related to production of multilayer printed circuit boards working at Honeywell, Incorporated, Advanced Circuits Division, Minnetonka, Minnesota, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 7, 2000, through February 13, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 9th day of July 2003.

Linda G. Poole,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Investigations Regarding Certifications of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

Petitions have been filed with the Secretary of Labor under section 221(a) of the Trade Act of 1974 ("the Act") and are identified in the Appendix to this notice. Upon receipt of these petitions, the Director of the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, has instituted investigations pursuant to section 221 (a) of the Act.

The purpose of each of the investigations is to determine whether the workers are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Title II, Chapter 2, of the Act. The investigations will further relate, as appropriate, to the determination of the date on which total or partial separations began or threatened to begin and the subdivision of the firm involved.

The petitioners or any other persons showing a substantial interest in the subject matter of the investigations may request a public hearing, provided such request is filed in writing with the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 4, 2003.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments regarding the subject matter of the investigations to the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, at the address shown below, not later than August 4, 2003.

The petitions filed in this case are available for inspection at the Office of the Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance, Employment and Training Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, Room C-5311, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20210.

Signed at Washington, DC this 16th day of July 2003.

Timothy Sullivan,

Director, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
