The Federal Communications Commission (Commission) requires telecommunications carriers and other providers of telecommunications to contribute to the Universal Service Fund (USF) and other funds. Contribution revenue data, as well as other information, are reported by carriers on FCC Forms 499-A (annual) and 499-Q (quarterly). Accompanying these forms are instructions on how to report revenue. The revisions that are proposed for this information collection will provide clarifications to the 2007 FCC Forms 499-A and 499-Q, and instructions in order to improve the revenue reporting process for respondents. The revisions provide filers with additional information concerning, for example, the reporting of prepaid calling card revenue to reflect clarifications adopted in various Commission orders; the treatment of wireline broadband internet access service revenue as a result of the Commission's Wireline Broadband Internet Access Services Order; and the filing of revenues by VoIP toll providers to reflect the Commission's IP-in-the-Middle Order. The revisions also provide guidance to entities regarding filing of Form 499-A and 499-Q.
