

predecessor.⁸ Thus, if the “totality of circumstances” demonstrate that, with respect to the production and sale of the subject merchandise, the new company operates as essentially the same business entity as the prior company, Commerce will assign the successor-in-interest the cash deposit rate of its predecessor.⁹

Preliminary Results of Review

We preliminarily determine that Honda is the successor-in-interest to Jialing for purposes of the Order. Record evidence submitted by Honda indicates that, based on the totality of the circumstances under Commerce’s successor-in-interest criteria, Honda operates as materially the same business entity as Jialing with respect to the production and sale of subject merchandise. In particular, we preliminarily find that Honda’s management and ownership, production facilities, supplier relationships, and customer base with regard to the subject merchandise are substantially the same as Jialing’s before the name change. For the complete successor-in-interest analysis, see the Preliminary Decision Memorandum.

Therefore, based on record evidence, we preliminarily determine that Honda is the successor-in-interest to Jialing and the cash deposit rate assigned to Jialing should be the rate for Honda as a result of our successor-in-interest finding. Should our final results of review remain the same as these preliminary results of review, Honda will be assigned the cash deposit rate currently assigned to Jialing with respect to the subject merchandise (i.e., 261.93 percent).¹⁰ We will thus instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection to suspend liquidation of entries of vertical shaft engines from China produced and exported by Honda, effective on the publication date of the final results, at the cash deposit rate for estimated antidumping duties assigned to Jialing.

Public Comment

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.309(c)(1)(ii), interested parties may submit case briefs not later than 30 days after the date of publication of this notice. Rebuttal briefs, limited to issues raised in the case briefs, may be filed no later than seven days after the due date for case briefs, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.309(d).¹¹ Parties who submit case or rebuttal briefs are encouraged to submit with each argument: (1) a statement of the issue; (2) a brief summary of the argument; and (3) a table of authorities.¹²

All comments are to be filed electronically via Enforcement and Compliance’s Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Centralized Electronic Service System (ACCESS) and must be served on interested parties.¹³ Note that Commerce has temporarily modified certain of its requirements for serving documents containing business proprietary information, until further notice.¹⁴ An electronically filed document must be received successfully in its entirety by ACCESS by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the day on which it is due.

Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.310(c), any interested party may request a hearing within 30 days of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Hearing requests should contain the following information: (1) The party’s name, address, and telephone number; (2) the number of participants; and (3) a list of the issues to be discussed. Oral presentations at the hearing will be limited to issues raised in the briefs. If a request for a hearing is made, Commerce intends to hold the hearing at a time and date to be determined. Parties should confirm the date and the time of the hearing two days before the scheduled date.

Final Results of Review

Consistent with 19 CFR 351.216(e), we intend to issue the final results of this CCR no later than 270 days after the date on which this review was initiated, or within 45 days if all parties agree to the outcome of the review.

Notification to Interested Parties

This notice is published in accordance with sections 751(b)(1) and 777(i)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.221(b)(4).

¹¹ Commerce is exercising its discretion under 19 CFR 351.309(d)(1) to alter the time limit for the filing of rebuttal briefs.

White Grape Juice Concentrate From Argentina: Postponement of Preliminary Determination in the Countervailing Duty Investigation

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Applicable June 9, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gene H. Calvert, AD/CVD Operations, Office VII, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–3586.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 20, 2022, the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) initiated a countervailing duty (CVD) investigation of imports of white grape juice concentrate from Argentina.¹ Currently, the preliminary determination is due no later than June 24, 2022.

Postponement of Preliminary Determination

Section 703(b)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), requires Commerce to issue the preliminary determination in a CVD investigation within 65 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation. However, section 703(c)(1) of the Act permits Commerce to postpone the preliminary determination until no later than 130 days after the date on which Commerce initiated the investigation if: (A) the petitioner² makes a timely request for a postponement; or (B) Commerce concludes that the parties concerned are cooperating, that the investigation is extraordinarily complicated, and that additional time is necessary to make a preliminary determination. Under 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner must submit a request for postponement 25 days or more before the scheduled date of the preliminary determination and must state the reasons for the request. Commerce will grant the request unless it finds compelling reasons to deny the request.

On May 31, 2022, the petitioner submitted a timely request that Commerce postpone the preliminary determination.³ The petitioner stated that postponement “is warranted to permit Commerce to develop the record in this investigation,” and that “[a]dditional time will be necessary to ensure that {Commerce} is able to sufficiently review all questionnaire responses, issue supplemental questionnaires as appropriate, and prepare an accurate preliminary determination.”⁴

In accordance with 19 CFR 351.205(e), the petitioner has stated the reasons for requesting a postponement of the preliminary determination, and Commerce finds no compelling reason to deny the request. Therefore, in accordance with section 703(c)(1)(A) of the Act, Commerce is postponing the deadline for the preliminary determination to no later than 130 days after the date on which this investigation was initiated, i.e., August 29, 2022.⁵ Pursuant to section 705(a)(1) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.210(b)(1), the deadline for the final determination of this investigation will continue to be 75 days after the date of the preliminary determination.

This notice is issued and published pursuant to section 703(c)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.205(f)(1).

⁵ Postponing the preliminary 130 days after initiation would place the deadline on Sunday, August 28, 2022. Commerce’s practice dictates that where a deadline falls on a weekend or federal holiday, the appropriate deadline is the next business day.
