Hearing or speech impaired individuals may access this number via TTY by calling the toll-free Federal Relay Service at: 1-(800) 877-8339.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: HUD is submitting this proposed reinstatement, with revised title and minor text revisions, of an expired, previously approved information collection to the OMB for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 [44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, as amended].

HUD has revised the previous title of the HUD Form Series HUD-903.1 information collection from "Housing Discrimination Information Form" to "Housing Discrimination Claim Form ("Form")." This revised title emphasizes that submitting a Housing Discrimination Claim Form to HUD is not equivalent to filing a jurisdictional housing discrimination complaint with HUD. The proposed minor text revisions comply with the procedures described in HUD's Fair Housing Act regulation at 24 CFR part 103, subpart B, Subsections 103.10, 103.15, 103.20, 103.25, 103.30, 103.35, and 103.40. The revised Form also provides a complete list of mailing addresses, email addresses, and fax numbers for HUD's ten (10) Regional Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO) Offices.

The proposed minor text revisions to HUD Form Series HUD-903.1 will not increase the information collection burden for aggrieved persons. Both the previous and revised Forms ask an aggrieved person to provide their full name; address; phone and/or email contact information; and alternative contact information. Both Forms also ask the aggrieved person to answer five (5) preliminary questions that may establish HUD's authority (jurisdiction) to file and investigate a Fair Housing Act complaint.

The proposed minor text revisions to HUD Form Series HUD-903.1 will not increase the total annual burden hours for aggrieved persons who submit the Form to HUD via the internet. Therefore, HUD does not believe that the time for completing the online version of the Form will exceed the current 45-minute time limit for internet submissions.

This Notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed reinstatement, with revised title and minor text revisions, of an expired, previously approved collection of information concerning alleged discriminatory housing practices under the Fair Housing Act [42 U.S.C. 3601 et seq.]. The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, occupancy, advertising, and insuring of residential dwellings; and in residential real estate-related transactions; and in the provision of brokerage services, based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap [disability], familial status, or national origin. The Fair Housing Act also makes it unlawful to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with any person who has (1) exercised their fair housing rights; or (2) aided or encouraged another person to exercise their fair housing rights.

Any person who claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice, or any person who believes that they will be injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur, may file a complaint with HUD not later than one year after the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurred or terminated. HUD has designed Housing Discrimination Claim Form HUD-903.1 to promote consistency in the documents that, by statute, must be provided to persons against whom complaints are filed ["respondents"], and for the convenience of the general public. Section 103.25 of HUD's Fair Housing Act regulation describes the information that must be included in each complaint filed with HUD. For purposes of meeting the Act's one-year time limitation for filing complaints with HUD, complaints need not be initially submitted on the Form that HUD provides. Housing Discrimination Claim Form HUD-903.1 (English language), HUD-903.1A (Spanish language), HUD-903.1B (Chinese language), HUD-903.1C (Arabic language), HUD-903.1F (Vietnamese language), HUD-903.1CAM (Cambodian language), HUD-903.1KOR (Korean language), HUD-903.1RUS (Russian language), and HUD-903-
