Allegheny Ludlum Corp., et al.*, C.A. No. 97-1863) was lodged with the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

In the Aetna, Inc., et al. action the United States seeks the recovery of response costs incurred in connection with the Breslube Penn Superfund Site, located in Coraopolis, Moon Township, Pennsylvania. The complaint alleges that each of the named defendants either arranged for the treatment and/or disposal of wastes containing hazardous substances at the Site, or transported wastes containing hazardous substances to the Site, and selected the Site, within 42 U.S.C. 9607(a). The complaint names 72 defendants, each of which have signed the proposed First Round De Minimis Consent Decree. Under the Consent Decree, each of the 72 named defendants would pay a proportionate share of all past and future response costs incurred and to be incurred at the Site, plus a premium. Further, under the Consent Decree, all Federal agencies that had wastes treated and/or disposed of at the Site, shall likewise pay a proportionate share of all past and future response costs incurred and to be incurred at the Site, plus a premium. In return for these payments, the 72 defendants and Federal agencies would receive a covenant not to sue (or not to take administrative action) by the United States, subject to certain reservations of rights, and contribution protection from suit by other potentially responsible parties. The total recovery under this Consent Decree should be approximately $890,000.
