

interpreters to provide simultaneous translation.

51. The responsible Secretary must maintain a file for each special committee proceeding, comprised of the original or a copy of all documents filed, whether or not filed in accordance with these Rules, in the special committee proceeding.

Death or Incapacity

52. If a special committee member is disqualified, dies, or otherwise becomes unable to fulfil special committee duties:

(a) special committee proceedings and computations of time shall be suspended, pending the appointment of a substitute special committee member; and

(b) if the disability, disqualification or death occurs after oral argument has begun, the chair may order that the matter be reheard, on such terms as are appropriate, after selection of a substitute special committee member.

Translation and Interpretation

53. (1) Subject to Rule 54, each involved Party shall, within a reasonable period of time:

(a) after the appointment of the last special committee member, advise the responsible Secretary in writing of the language in which its written submissions will be made and in which it wishes to receive the written submissions of the other involved Party; and

(b) before the date of a hearing, advise the responsible Secretary in writing of the language in which it will present oral arguments at the hearing and in which it wishes to hear oral arguments.

(2) On receipt of an advisement submitted pursuant to subrule (1), the responsible Secretary must promptly notify the other involved Secretary, the other involved Party and the special committee.

54. (1) In lieu of the procedure set out in Rule 53, a Party may advise its Secretary of the language in which:

(a) its written submissions will be made in all special committee proceedings and in which it wishes to receive written submissions of any other Party involved in a special committee proceeding; and

(b) it will present oral arguments, and in which it wishes to hear oral arguments, at all special committee hearings.

(2) On receipt of an advisement submitted pursuant to subrule (1), a Secretary must promptly notify the other Secretaries and Parties accordingly.

55. If the responsible Secretary is advised that written submissions or oral arguments in a special committee proceeding will be in more than one language or on the basis of a request of a special committee member, the responsible Secretary must arrange for the translation of the written submission(s) or for the provision of interpreters to provide simultaneous translation at the hearing, as the case may be.

56. Any time period applicable to a special committee proceeding shall be suspended for the period necessary to complete the translation of any written submission.

57. (1) The costs incurred in the preparation of a translation of a written submission shall be borne by the Party filing the submission.

(2) Costs for interpretation of oral arguments and for the translation of the special committee's reports shall be shared equally by the involved Parties.
