Determination of Eligibility for Consideration as Wilderness Areas, Wupatki National Monument, Arizona

AGENCY: National Park Service, Interior

ACTION: Notice of Determination of Wilderness Eligibility for Lands in Wupatki National Monument.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Wilderness Act of 1964, and in accordance with National Park Service (NPS) Management Policies (2006), Section 6.2.1, the NPS has completed a Wilderness Eligibility Assessment to determine if lands within Wupatki National Monument (Wupatki or monument) meet criteria indicating eligibility for preservation as wilderness.

ADDRESSES: A map of lands assessed is on file at Wupatki National Monument Headquarters, 6400 U.S. 89, Flagstaff, AZ 86004.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Acting Superintendent Kristofer Butcher, Flagstaff Area National Monuments, 6400 U.S. 89, Flagstaff, AZ 86004, Telephone: 928–526–1157 or 205–410–3543, email address: Kristofer_butcher@nps.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Wupatki National Monument has determined that a significant portion of the lands within the monument are eligible for wilderness designation. Areas determined to be eligible for wilderness designation total 34,194 acres or 96.5% of Wupatki's total 35,424 acres, with the remaining 1,230 acres or 3.5% of total monument acreage determined not eligible for wilderness designation.

Eligible wilderness areas at Wupatki National Monument are subdivided into the following areas:

Eligible Wilderness Area 1: 6,284 acres. This area contains outstanding grassland resources with some juniper savanna in the eastern portions. The landscape is dominated by basalt mesas and offers prime habitat for pronghorn antelope. The area is largely undeveloped and retains most of its primeval character. This area is managed to protect pronghorn habitat and sensitive cultural resources. The western-most portion of this area is affected by the presence of Highway 89 but is still eligible to be designated as wilderness.

Eligible Wilderness Area 2: 21,168 acres. Almost the entire area is undeveloped, with few signs of people and one rarely used administrative road (Crack-in-Rock Road). This area generally appears to be affected primarily by natural forces. The area offers a variety of habitats including pristine grassland, juniper savanna, and cold desert scrub, and is bisected by a prominent geologic feature known as the Doney monocline. The monocline contains deeply incised washes including Antelope Wash, and outstanding views of the Painted Desert, Little Colorado River valley to the north and east, and the San Francisco Peaks to the south. Spectacular features found in this area include red formations of Moenkopi sandstone and areas such as Deadman Wash, which extends from well south of the monument around the north side of the San Francisco Peaks, all the way to the Little Colorado River.

Eligible Wilderness Area 3: 1,929 acres. This area surrounds Wupatki

National Monument's primary interpretive feature, the Visitor Center, and the housing area. Some development has occurred within this area to support monument operations; however, it is confined to the Wupatki Visitor Center area and on top of the Woodhouse Mesa. One above ground utility line runs to Woodhouse Mesa, however, as the monument strives to become more energy efficient and self-sufficient, it will pursue removing the above ground line. The rest of the area consists of Doney Mountain and Deadman Wash. Although this wilderness area is less than 5,000 acres, this area can be managed as wilderness because the landscape is homogenous with the surrounding eligible wilderness areas but is bisected by the primary road that goes through Wupatki. This area has many locations not affected by modern development and the potential for seclusion exists in this area. The area outside of the administrative zones is undeveloped and is affected primarily by natural forces.

Eligible Wilderness Area 4: 4,813 acres. This area contains outstanding Moenkopi sandstone outcrops and deep washes. The landscape is dominated by basalt mesas and offers prime locations for isolation and quiet. The area is largely undeveloped and retains most of its primeval character except for an interpretive pueblo site with associated parking area and access road (Wukoki Pueblo), a small administrative area used for maintenance activities (New Heiser) and a special use permit residence with associated road access. At the expiration of the special use permit for the residence, the area will be rehabilitated to restore natural conditions.

In accordance with NPS Management Policies (2006), Section 6.2.2, Wupatki National Monument will prepare a wilderness study to determine if any portions of the monument should be recommended for inclusion in the National Wilderness Preservation System as defined in the Wilderness Act of 1964.

Charles F. Sams, III,
Director, National Park Service.

Glycine From China; Scheduling of Expedited Five-Year Review

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission hereby gives notice of the scheduling of an expedited review pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act") to determine whether revocation of the antidumping duty order on glycine from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury within a reasonably foreseeable time.

DATES: April 8, 2022.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Tyler Berard (202-205-3354), Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired persons can obtain information on this matter by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<https://www.usitc.gov>). The public record for this review may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <https://edis.usitc.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—On April 8, 2022, the Commission determined that the domestic interested party group response to its notice of institution (87 FR 112, January 3, 2022) of the subject five-year review was adequate and that the respondent interested party group response was inadequate. The Commission did not find any other circumstances that would warrant conducting a full review.¹ Accordingly, the Commission determined that it would conduct an expedited review pursuant to section 751(c)(3) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)(3)).

For further information concerning the conduct of this review and rules of general application, consult the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A and B (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A, D, E, and F (19 CFR part 207).

Please note the Secretary's Office will accept only electronic filings at this time. Filings must be made through the Commission's Electronic Document Information System (EDIS, <https://edis.usitc.gov>). No in-person paper-based filings or paper copies of any electronic filings will be accepted until further notice.

Staff report.—A staff report containing information concerning the subject matter of the review has been placed in the nonpublic record, and will be made available to persons on the Administrative Protective Order service list for this review on July 21, 2022. A public version will be issued thereafter, pursuant to section 207.62(d)(4) of the Commission's rules.

Written submissions.—As provided in section 207.62(d) of the Commission's rules, interested parties that are parties to the review and that have provided individually adequate responses to the notice of institution,² and any party other than an interested party to the review may file written comments with the Secretary on what determinations the Commission should reach in the review. Comments are due on or before July 28, 2022 and may not contain new factual information. Any person that is neither a party to the five-year review nor an interested party may submit a brief written statement (which shall not contain any new factual information) pertinent to the review by July 28, 2022. However, should the Department of Commerce ("Commerce") extend the time limit for its completion of the final results of its review, the deadline for comments (which may not contain new factual information) on Commerce's final results is three business days after the issuance of Commerce's results. If comments contain business proprietary information (BPI), they must conform with the requirements of sections 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's Handbook on Filing Procedures, available on the Commission's website at https://www.usitc.gov/documents/handbook_on_filing_procedures.pdf, elaborates upon the Commission's procedures with respect to filings.

In accordance with sections 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the review must be served on all other parties to the review (as identified by either the public or BPI

² The Commission has found the response to its notice of institution filed on behalf of GEO Specialty Chemicals, Inc., a domestic producer of glycine, to be individually adequate. Comments from other interested parties will not be accepted (see 19 CFR 207.62(d)(2)).
