

- The adverse effects of predatory lending practices on minority and elderly borrowers;
- Possible improvements under existing federal laws and proposals for new protections;
- The role of state laws in stemming abusive lending;
- Predatory lending, the secondary market and the securities industry—from Main Street to Wall Street;
- The role of enforcement in stemming predatory lending practices under federal laws, such as the Fair Housing Act and RESPA;
- Counseling and consumer education; and
- Positive and negative effects of technology on predatory abuses.

The agendas for each forum will be established in advance and made available by HUD through its web site (<http://www.hud.gov>) and through HUD's Office of Public Affairs. Following these forums, HUD will propose protections to address abusive lending practices.
