

considered part of the Commission record.

The Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure require all intervenors filing documents with the Commission to serve a copy of that document on each person whose name appears on the official service list for the project. Further, if an intervenor files comments or documents with the Commission relating to the merits of an issue that may affect the responsibilities of a particular resource agency, they must also serve a copy of the document on that resource agency.

k. Description of Request: The licensee requests approval of a temporary variance of its stream gaging requirements in order to complete maintenance on the West Rosebud Creek stream gaging weir, located immediately upstream of the Mystic Powerhouse discharge. Standard Article 8 of the project license requires the licensee to install and maintain stream gaging stations for the determination of stage and flow, the amount of water being held in and withdrawn from storage, and the effective head on the turbines. The West Rosebud Creek weir consists of a concrete check dam and metal threshold plate; however, the licensee reports that erosion of the concrete has allowed water to flow under the metal threshold plate, decreasing gaging accuracy. Maintenance of the weir would entail removing the plate, repairing the concrete, and reattaching the plate. In order to do so, the licensee requests that it be allowed to dewater the site for a maximum of 7 days, while maintaining flows in the bypass reach.

n. Comments, Protests, or Motions to Intervene: Anyone may submit comments, a protest, or a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.210, .211, and .214. In determining the appropriate action to take, the Commission will consider all protests or other comments filed, but only those who file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules may become a party to the proceeding. Any comments, protests, or motions to intervene must be received on or before the specified comment date for the particular application.

All comments, motions to intervene, or protests must set forth their evidentiary basis. Any filing made by an intervenor must be accompanied by proof of service on all persons listed in the service list prepared by the Commission in this proceeding, in accordance with 18 CFR 385.2010.
