

Moshir-Fatemi had an interest at the time of his conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby Ordered:

First, from the date of this Order until January 28, 2031, Hassan Ali Moshir-Fatemi, with a last known address of, 290 Summit Road, Watsonville, CA 95076, and when acting for or on his behalf, his successors, assigns, employees, agents or representatives (“the Denied Person”), may not directly or indirectly participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as “item”) exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license, license exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or engaging in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefitting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or from any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Second, no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export, reexport, or transfer (in-country) to or on behalf of the Denied Person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the Denied Person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the Denied Person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the Denied Person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the Denied Person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States and which is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person, or service any item, of whatever origin, that is owned, possessed or controlled by the Denied Person if such service involves the use of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States. For purposes of this paragraph, servicing means installation, maintenance, repair, modification or testing.

Third, pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (50 U.S.C. 4819(e)) and Sections 766.23 and 766.25 of the Regulations, any other person, firm, corporation, or business organization related to Moshir-Fatemi by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business may also be made subject to the provisions of this Order in order to prevent evasion of this Order.

Fourth, in accordance with Part 756 of the Regulations, Moshir-Fatemi may file an appeal of this Order with the Under Secretary of Commerce for Industry and Security. The appeal must be filed within 45 days from the date of this Order and must comply with the provisions of Part 756 of the Regulations.

Fifth, a copy of this Order shall be delivered to Moshir-Fatemi and shall be published in the Federal Register.

Sixth, this Order is effective immediately and shall remain in effect until January 28, 2031.

In the Matter of: Amilkar Murillo,
Inmate Number: 45586–480, FCI
Beaumont Low, Federal Correctional
Institution, P.O. Box 26020, Beaumont,
TX 77720; Order Denying Export Privileges

On August 7, 2020, in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Texas, Amilkar Murillo (“Murillo”) was convicted of violating 18 U.S.C. 554(a). Specifically, Murillo was convicted of knowingly and unlawfully concealing, buying, or facilitating the transportation and concealment of any merchandise, article and object, prior to exportation, knowing the same to be intended for exportation from the United States, to-wit: a Taurus 9mm handgun with 2 magazines, a Taurus 40 caliber handgun with 2 magazines, a Ruger 9mm handgun with 2 magazines, a Smith & Wesson 9mm handgun with 2 magazines, a Glock 380 handgun with 2 magazines, a Smith & Wesson 40 caliber handgun with 2 magazines, and a box of .380 ammunition (20 rounds), all in violation of 18 U.S.C. 554. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Murillo to 46 months in prison, two years of non-reporting supervised release as long as Murillo resides in Mexico, and a $200 assessment.

Pursuant to Section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”),¹ the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, 18 U.S.C. 554, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Murillo’s conviction for violating 18 U.S.C. 554. As provided in Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or the “Regulations”), BIS provided notice and opportunity for Murillo to make a written submission to BIS. 15 CFR 766.25.² BIS has not received a written submission from Murillo.

Based upon my review of the record and consultations with BIS’s Office of Exporter Services, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny Murillo’s export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of Murillo’s conviction. The Office of Exporter Services has also decided to revoke any BIS-issued licenses in which Murillo had an interest at the time of his conviction.³

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered:
First, from the date of this Order until August 7, 2030, Amilkar Murillo, with

Non-Oriented Electrical Steel From the Republic of Korea, Certain Corrosion-Resistant Steel Products From the Republic of Korea, Certain Cold-Rolled Steel Flat Products From the Republic of Korea, Certain Hot-Rolled Steel Flat Products From the Republic of Korea, Certain Carbon and Alloy Steel Cut-to-Length Plate From the Republic of Korea, and Carbon and Alloy Steel Wire Rod From the Republic of Korea: Notice of Initiation and Preliminary Results of Antidumping Duty Changed Circumstances Review

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: In response to a request for a changed circumstances review (CCR), the U.S. Department of Commerce (Commerce) is initiating a CCR of the antidumping duty (AD) orders on non-oriented electrical steel, certain corrosion-resistant steel products, certain cold-rolled steel flat products, certain hot-rolled steel flat products, certain carbon and alloy steel cut-to-length plate, and carbon and alloy steel wire rod from the Republic of Korea (Korea). Additionally, Commerce preliminarily determines that POSCO, following a corporate organizational change in March 2022 (hereinafter, POSCO(II)), is the successor-in-interest to the pre-reorganization POSCO entity (hereinafter, POSCO(I)). As such, POSCO(II) is entitled to POSCO(I)'s AD cash deposit rates with respect to entries of subject merchandise in each of the above-referenced proceedings. Interested parties are invited to comment on these preliminary results.

DATES: Applicable July 13, 2022.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On May 23 and 24, 2022, POSCO(II) notified Commerce of a corporate reorganization and requested that, if necessary, Commerce initiate CCRs under the relevant AD proceedings to determine that it is the successor-in-interest to POSCO(I) for purposes of determining AD cash deposits.¹ In this request, POSCO(II) stated that, on December 10, 2021, the board of directors of POSCO(I) initially approved a corporate reorganization whereby POSCO(I) would be registered as POSCO Holdings, and POSCO(I)'s production and sales operations for its steel business would be organized under a new business unit, POSCO(II), which would be a subsidiary of POSCO
