(1) The ship name and identification of the on-board station;

(2) The number of and type of repeater and mobile units used on-board the vessel; and

(3) The date the type of equipment which is added or removed from the on-board station.

Proposal under OMB Delegated Authority to Extend for Three Years, With Revision, the Following Information Collection

Report title: Reports of Deposits; Report of Transaction Accounts, Other Deposits, and Vault Cash; Annual Report of Deposits and Reservable Liabilities; Report of Foreign (Non-U.S.) Currency Deposits; and Allocation of Low Reserve Tranche and Reservable Liabilities Exemption.

Agency form number: FR 2900; FR 2910a; FR 2915; and FR 2930.

OMB control number: 7100-0087.

Frequency: Weekly, quarterly, annually, and on occasion.

Respondents: Depository institutions.

Estimated number of respondents: FR 2900 (Weekly): 1,000; FR 2900 (Quarterly): 0; FR 2910a: 0; FR 2915: 116; and FR 2930: 0.

Estimated average hours per response: FR 2900 (Weekly): 1.0; FR 2900 (Quarterly): 0; FR 2910a: 0; FR 2915: 0.5; and FR 2930: 0.

Estimated annual burden hours: FR 2900 (Weekly): 52,000; FR 2900

(Quarterly): 0; FR 2910a: 0; FR 2915: 232; and FR 2930: 0.

General description of report: Data from these mandatory reports are used by the Board for administering reserve requirements and for constructing, analyzing, and monitoring the monetary aggregates. The FR 2900 is the primary source of data for the construction and analysis of the monetary aggregates and was used for the calculation of required reserves and applied vault cash. The FR 2910a report has been a key data source for determining which depository institutions need to file the FR 2900. FR 2900 respondents that offer deposits denominated in foreign currencies at their U.S. offices file the FR 2915. Foreign currency deposits are subject to reserve requirements and, therefore, are included in the FR 2900 data. However, because foreign currency deposits are not included in the monetary aggregates, the FR 2915 data are used to net foreign currency-denominated deposits from the FR 2900 data to exclude them from measures of the monetary aggregates. The FR 2930 data are used in the calculation of reserve requirements; typically, depository institutions file this report after being informed of updates to key reserve requirement thresholds toward the end of each calendar year or upon the establishment of an office outside the home state or Federal Reserve District.

Proposed revisions: The Board proposes to take steps to reduce reporting burden associated with reserve requirements by discontinuing the collection of the FR 2910a and FR 2930, ceasing the quarterly collection of the FR 2900, and refocusing items on the weekly collection of the FR 2900 and the FR 2915 to those that support the construction and analysis of the monetary aggregates.

Legal authorization and confidentiality: The FR 2900 report and the FR 2915 report are authorized to be collected from depository institutions (commercial banks, credit unions, and savings and loan associations) pursuant to section 11(a)(2) of the Federal Reserve Act (FRA); from agreement corporations pursuant to section 25(5) and (7) of the FRA and section 604a of the FRA; from banking Edge corporations pursuant to section 25A(17) of the FRA; and from branches and agencies of foreign banks pursuant to section 7 of the International Banking Act. The FR 2900 and FR 2915 are mandatory.

The data collected under the FR 2900 is considered confidential commercial and financial information, and respondents are assured that the data being collected will be treated as confidential by the Federal Reserve

(except that aggregate data, which does not identify any individual institution, may be disclosed). Accordingly, the data collected on these reports is considered confidential pursuant to exemption 4 of the Freedom of Information Act, which protects confidential commercial or financial information from public disclosure.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, August 27, 2020.
