

United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 735(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673d(b)) (the Act), that termination of the suspended countervailing duty investigation and revocation of the antidumping duty order on carbon steel wire rod from Argentina would not likely lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.¹

Background

The Commission instituted these reviews on November 2, 1998 (63 FR 58756) and determined effective February 14, 1999 (64 FR 8120, February 18, 1999) that it would conduct full reviews. Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's reviews and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on March 31, 1999 (64 FR 15375). The hearing was held in Washington, DC, on August 3, 1999, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on January 27, 2000. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3270 (January 2000), entitled Carbon Steel Wire Rod from Argentina: Investigations Nos. 701-TA-A (Review and 731-TA-157 (Review).

Issued: January 28, 2000.

By order of the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731-TA-621 (Review)]

Compact Ductile Iron Waterworks Fittings From China

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Termination of five-year review.

SUMMARY: The subject five-year review was initiated in November 1999 to determine whether revocation of the existing antidumping duty order would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and of material injury to a domestic industry. On January 24, 2000, the Department of Commerce published notice that it was revoking the order "because no domestic party responded to the sunset review notice of initiation by the applicable deadline" (65 FR 3660). Accordingly, pursuant to section 207.69 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR § 207.69), the subject review is terminated.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 24, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Vera Libeau (202-205-3176), Office of Investigations, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street SW, Washington, DC 20436. Hearing-impaired individuals are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on 202-205-1810. Persons with mobility impairments who will need special assistance in gaining access to the Commission should contact the Office of the Secretary at 202-205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its internet server (<http://www.usitc.gov>).

Authority: This review is being terminated under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.69 of the Commission's rules (19 CFR § 207.69).

Issued: January 28, 2000.

By order of the Commission.
