

requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

(3) Routine Use—Grievance, Complaint, Appeal: We may disclose as a routine use a record from a FEMA system of records to an authorized appeal or grievance examiner, formal complaints examiner, equal opportunity investigator, arbitrator, mediator, or other duly authorized official engaged in investigation or settlement of a grievance, complaint, or appeal by an employee. We may disclose a record from this system of records to the Office of Personnel Management as government-wide records; we will consider those records as part of the government-wide system. We may transfer as a routine use other official personnel records covered by notices published by FEMA and considered to be separate systems of records to the Office of Personnel management in accordance with official personnel programs and activities.

(5) Routine Use—Congressional Inquiries: We may disclose as a routine use a record from a FEMA system of records to a Member of Congress or to a Congressional staff member in response to an inquiry of the Congressional office made at the request of the individual about whom the record is maintained.

(6) Routine Use—Private Relief Legislation: We may disclose as a routine use the information contained in a FEMA system of records to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19 at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that circular.

(7) Routine Use—Disclosure to the Office of Personnel Management: We may disclose as a routine use a record from a FEMA system of records to the Office of Personnel Management concerning information on pay and leave benefits, retirement deductions, and any other information concerning personnel actions.

(8) Routine Use—Disclosure to National Archives and Records Administration: We may disclose as a routine use a record from a FEMA system of records management inspections conducted under authority of 44 U.S.C. 2904 and 2906.

(9) Routine Use—Grand Jury: We may disclose as a routine use a record from any system of records to a grand jury agent pursuant to a federal or State grand jury subpoena or to a prosecution request that such record be released for the purpose of its introduction to a grand jury.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

Privacy Act of 1974; Report of New Computer Matching Agreement

AGENCY: Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) (formerly the Health Care Financing Administration).

ACTION: Notice of a New Computer Matching Agreement (CMA).

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, we are proposing to establish a CMA between CMS and the State of California Department of Health Services (DHS) titled "Disclosure of Medicare and Medicaid Information."

EFFECTIVE DATES: CMS filed a CMA report with the Chair of the House Committee on Government Reform and Oversight, the Chair of the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs, and the Administrator, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) on January 15, 2002. To ensure that all parties have adequate time in which to comment, the modified or altered system of records, including routine uses, will become effective 40 days from the publication of the notice, or from the date it was submitted to OMB and the Congress, whichever is later, unless CMS receives comments that require alterations to this notice.

ADDRESSES: The public should address comments to: Director, Division of Data Liaison and Distribution, CMS, Room N2-04-27, 7500 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21244-1850. Comments received will be available for review at this location, by appointment, during regular business hours, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m.-3 p.m., eastern standard time.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Howard Cohen, Health Insurance Specialist, Program Integrity Group, Office of Financial Affairs, CMS, Room C3-02-16, 7500 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21244-1850. The telephone number is 410-786-9537.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Description of the Matching Program

A. General

The Computer Matching and Privacy Protection Act of 1988 (Pub. L. 100-503), amended the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a) by describing the manner in which computer matching involving Federal agencies could be performed and adding certain protections for individuals applying for and receiving Federal benefits. Section 7201 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 (Pub. L. 100-508) further amended the Privacy Act regarding protections for such individuals. The Privacy Act, as amended, regulates the use of computer matching by Federal agencies when records in a system of records are matched with other Federal, state, or local government records. It requires Federal agencies involved in computer matching programs to:
