

other rules subject to the imposition of fines under the MRVP. The Commission believes that the violation of any self-regulatory organization rules, as well as Commission rules, is a serious matter. However, the MRVP provides a reasonable means of addressing rule violations that do not rise to the level of requiring formal disciplinary proceedings, while providing greater flexibility in handling certain violations. The Commission expects that FINRA will continue to conduct surveillance with due diligence and make a determination based on its findings, on a case-by-case basis, whether a fine of more or less than the recommended amount is appropriate for a violation under the MRVP or whether a violation requires formal disciplinary action.

FINRA has requested that the Commission find good cause for approving the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after publication of the notice thereof in the Federal Register. The Commission hereby grants that request. FINRA's proposal is substantially similar to those of other options exchanges, which previously have been approved by the Commission.¹² The Commission does not believe that FINRA's proposal raises any novel regulatory issues, and no comments were received on any of these earlier proposals. Accordingly, the Commission finds good cause, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,¹³ for approving the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after publication of the notice thereof in the Federal Register.

V. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act¹⁴ and Rule 19d-1(c)(2) under the Act,¹⁵ that the proposed rule change (SR-FINRA-2008-023), be, and hereby is, approved and declared effective on an accelerated basis.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁶

Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice 6259]

Determination Pursuant to Section 1(b) of Executive Order 13224 Relating to the Designation of the Rajah (Raja) Solaiman (Sulayman, Sulaiman, Soleiman) Movement (RSM), aka Rajah Solaiman Revolutionary Movement (RSRM) aka Rajah Solaiman Group, aka Rajah Solaiman Islamic Movement (RSIM) and RSM leader Ahmad (Ahmed) Santos, aka Hilarion del Rosario Santos III, aka Abu Lakay, aka Ahmad Islam del Rosario Santos Santos aka Hilarion del Rosario Santos

Acting under the authority of section 1(b) of Executive Order 13224 of September 23, 2001, as amended by Executive Order 13286 of July 2, 2002, and Executive Order 13284 of January 23, 2003, and in consultation with the Secretary of the Treasury, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of Homeland Security, I hereby determine that the organization known as the Rajah Solaiman Movement (RSM) and aliases and transliterations listed above has committed, or poses a significant risk of committing, acts of terrorism that threaten the security of U.S. nationals or the national security, foreign policy, or economy of the United States. In addition, I find that RSM leader Ahmed Santos and aliases has committed or poses a significant risk of committing acts of terrorism that threaten the security of U.S. nationals or the national security, foreign policy, or economy of the United States.

Consistent with the determination in section 10 of Executive Order 13224 that "prior notice to persons determined to be subject to the Order who might have a constitutional presence in the United States would render ineffectual the blocking and other measures authorized in the Order because of the ability to transfer funds instantaneously," I determine that no prior notice need be provided to any person subject to this determination who might have a constitutional presence in the United States, because to do so would render ineffectual the measures authorized in the Order.

This notice shall be published in the Federal Register.

Dated: June 9, 2008.

John D. Negroponte,

Deputy Secretary of State, Department of State.
