BILLING CODE 4140-01-M

DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services

[CIS No. 2316-04]

Supplemental Information Regarding the H-1B Numerical Limitation for Fiscal Year 2004 Affecting F and J Nonimmigrants

AGENCY: Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: On February 25, 2004, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) published a notice in the Federal Register informing the public of the procedures DHS would follow as the fiscal year 2004 (FY 2004) numerical cap for the H-1B nonimmigrant category would be reached. This notice supplements that information and informs the public that as part of those H-1B cap procedures the Secretary of Homeland Security will exercise his authority to extend the status of certain F and J nonimmigrant students if DHS has received from their prospective employer a timely filed request for change of nonimmigrant status to that of an H-1B nonimmigrant no later than July 30, 2004 and the employment start date on the petition is no later than October 1, 2004.

DATES: This notice is effective July 23, 2004.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kevin J. Cummings, Business and Trade Services Branch/Program and Regulation Development, Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services, Department of Homeland Security, 425 I Street, NW., ULLB 3rd Floor, Washington, DC 20536, telephone (202) 305-3175.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 214(g) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (Act) provides that the total number of aliens who may be issued H-1B visas or otherwise granted H-1B status during FY 2004 may not exceed 65,000. On February 25, 2004, CIS published a notice in the Federal Register at 69 FR 8675 informing the public that the H-1B numerical limitation would be reached and that CIS would not process any additional petitions with an employment start date on or before September 30, 2004. The notice contained the procedures that CIS would follow as the cap was reached. This notice supplements the information in the February 25, 2004 notice and informs the public that the Secretary of Homeland Security is exercising his authority under 8 CFR 214.2(f)(5)(vi) and 8 CFR part 214.2(j)(1)(vi) for this fiscal year to extend the duration of status for certain F and J students if their prospective employer has timely filed a request for change of nonimmigrant status to that of an H-1B nonimmigrant alien that is received by DHS on or before July 30, 2004 and contains an employment start date of no later than October 1, 2004. This measure will prevent a lapse of status for aliens who have maintained their status and would otherwise be eligible for a change to H-1B status if the annual H-1B numerical limitation had not been reached.

Background

The former U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (Legacy INS) published an interim rule in the Federal Register on June 15, 1999, at 64 FR 32146, that amended its regulations to expand the definition of duration of status for an F and J nonimmigrant alien whose prospective employer timely files an application for change of status to H-1B nonimmigrant classification.

The rule, codified at 8 CFR part 214.2(f)(5)(vi) and 8 CFR part 214.2(j)(1)(vi), provides that the Secretary of Homeland Security may extend the duration of status, by notice in the Federal Register, of an F or J nonimmigrant on whose behalf a prospective employer has timely filed a petition for change of nonimmigrant status to that of an H-1B nonimmigrant pursuant to 8 CFR part 248, provided the alien has not violated the terms of his or her admission to the United States. This extension can be accomplished at any time the Secretary of Homeland Security determines that the H-1B cap will be reached prior to the end of the fiscal year. The regulation provides that the extension shall continue for such time as is necessary to complete adjudication of an application for change of nonimmigrant status to H-1B. An alien whose duration of status has been extended by the Secretary of Homeland Security and who continues to adhere to the other terms of the alien's status is considered to be maintaining lawful nonimmigrant status for all purposes under the Act.

Will the Secretary of Homeland Security exercise his authority to extend the status of F-1 and J-1 students on whose behalf employers have timely filed applications to change status to H-1B, but who are unable to obtain that status because the Fiscal Year 2004 H-1B numerical limitation has been reached?

Yes, if the H-1B petition meets certain requirements. This notice informs the public that the Secretary of Homeland Security will exercise his discretionary authority under 8 CFR part 214.2(f)(5)(vi) and 8 CFR part 214.2(j)(1)(vi) for petitions affected by the reaching of the FY 2004 cap. Accordingly, any F-1 or J-1 student (as defined at 22 CFR part 62.4(a)) nonimmigrant continuing to maintain status whose prospective employer timely files an H-1B petition on his or her behalf prior to July 30, 2004, that contains an employment start date of no later than October 1, 2004, will continue to be in valid F-1 or J-1 status until October 1, 2004. Additionally, in the case of a J-1 student, the alien must not be subject to the two-year home residence requirement under section 212(e) of the Act. The duration of status for dependents of affected F-1 or J-1 nonimmigrant aliens is also extended under this notice until October 1, 2004. This notice applies only to J-1 exchange visitor students (defined at 22 CFR part 62.4(a)), and does not apply to other categories of exchange visitors.

Pursuant to 8 CFR 248.1(b) and 214.1(c)(4), the term "timely filed" refers to an application for a change of nonimmigrant status filed prior to the expiration of the alien's period of
