The goal of the one-day meeting is to evaluate industry interest in creating a NIST/industry consortium focused on the characterization and modeling of the surface and interface of polymeric materials and composites. The goals of such a consortium would include the development of measurement science to evaluate performance and optical properties of polymeric materials utilizing techniques to measure surface mechanical properties, scratch and mar resistance, and fracture at interfaces. The consortium would be administered by NIST. Consortium research and development would be conducted by NIST staff members along with at least one technical representative from each participating member company. Membership fees for participation in the consortium will be Twenty-five Thousand ($25,000) per year. The initial term of the consortium is intended to be three years.
