

In accordance with section 246 the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents the results of its investigation regarding certification of eligibility to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) for older workers.

In order for the Department to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for ATAA, the group eligibility requirements of Section 246 of the Trade Act must be met. The Department has determined in this case that the requirements of section 246 have been met.

A significant number of workers at the firm are age 50 or over and possess skills that are not easily transferable. Competitive conditions within the industry are adverse.

Conclusion

After careful review of the information obtained in the reconsideration investigation, I determine that workers of Classic Print Products, Inc., Burlington, North Carolina qualify as adversely affected secondary workers under section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following certification:

All workers of Classic Print Products, Inc., Burlington, North Carolina, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 17, 2005 through two years from the date of this certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed in Washington, DC this 17th day of April 2006.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

IBM Corporation; Somers, NY; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on September 22, 2003, in response to a petition filed on behalf of workers at IBM Corporation, Somers, New York.

The petition regarding the investigation has been deemed invalid.

In order to establish a valid petition, there must be at least three workers to sign the petition. The petition in this case did not meet this threshold number. Consequently, the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC this 7th day of April 2006.

Lexmark International, Inc., Supply Chain Workforce, Printing Solutions & Services Division, Lexington, KY; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application of March 25, 2006, a petitioner requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance, applicable to workers of the subject firm. The Department's notice of determination was signed on February 24, 2006, and published in the Federal Register on March 22, 2006 (71 FR 14550).

The petitioner stated in the request for reconsideration that the worker group supported the production of components (ink and printer cartridges) of articles produced by the subject firm (printers). The petitioner also inferred that support activities were shifted overseas when production shifted abroad.

The Department has carefully reviewed the request for reconsideration and has determined that the Department will conduct further investigation based on new information provided by the petitioner and the company official.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 13th day of April 2006.

McCormick International USA, Inc., Pella, IA; Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, an investigation was initiated on March 14, 2006 in response to a petition filed by a Texas Workforce Commission representative on behalf of workers of McCormick International USA, Inc., Pella, Iowa.

The petition has been deemed invalid. A state agency representative cannot file a TAA petition on behalf of workers of a firm located in another state.

Consequently, further investigation would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 11th day of April 2006.
