This document is also available on the Board's Internet site (<http://www.access-board.gov/caac/meeting.htm>).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In 2004, as part of the outreach efforts on courthouse accessibility, the Access Board established a Federal advisory committee to advise the Access Board on issues related to the accessibility of courthouses, particularly courtrooms, including best practices, design solutions, promotion of accessible features, educational opportunities, and the gathering of information on existing barriers, practices, recommendations, and guidelines. On October 12, 2004, the Access Board published a notice appointing 31 members to the Courthouse Access Advisory Committee. 69 FR 60608 (October 12, 2004). Members of the Committee include designers and architects, disability groups, members of the judiciary, court administrators, representatives of the codes community and standard-setting entities, government agencies, and others with an interest in the issues to be explored. The Committee held its initial meeting on November 4 and 5, 2004. Members discussed the current requirements for accessibility, committee goals and objectives and the establishment of subcommittees. The second meeting of the Committee was held in February, 2005. The Committee toured two courthouses and established three subcommittees: Education, Courtrooms and Courthouses (areas unique to courthouses other than courtrooms). Minutes of the meetings may be found on the Access Board Web site at <http://www.access-board.gov>. At the May meeting of the Committee, members will tour a courthouse and continue to address issues both as a full Committee and in subcommittees.

Committee meetings are open to the public and interested persons can attend the meetings and communicate their views. Members of the public will have an opportunity to address the Committee on issues of interest to them and the Committee during public comment periods scheduled on each day of the meeting. Members of groups or individuals who are not members of the Committee are invited to participate on the subcommittees. The Access Board believes that participation of this kind can be very valuable for the advisory committee process.

The meeting will be held at a site accessible to individuals with disabilities. Real-time captioning will be provided. Individuals who require sign language interpreters should contact Elizabeth Stewart by April 25, 2005. Notices of future meetings will be published in the Federal Register.

Revocation of Antidumping Duty Order: Frozen Concentrated Orange Juice from Brazil

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), the United States International Trade Commission (the ITC) determined that revocation of the antidumping order on frozen concentrated orange juice (FCOJ) from Brazil would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (70 FR 15884 (Mar. 29, 2005)). Therefore, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(1)(iii), the Department of Commerce (the Department) is revoking the antidumping order on FCOJ from Brazil. Pursuant to section 751(c)(6)(A)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2)(i), the effective date of revocation of the antidumping duty order is August 5, 2004.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 5, 2004.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Elizabeth Eastwood or Jill Pollack, AD/CVD Operations, Office 2, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230, telephone: (202) 482-3874 or (202) 482-4593, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 1, 2004, the Department initiated (69 FR 17129), and the ITC instituted (69 FR 17230), a sunset review of the antidumping duty order on FCOJ from Brazil pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act. As a result of this review, the Department found that revocation of the antidumping duty order on FCOJ from Brazil would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping, and notified the ITC of the magnitude of the margin likely to prevail were the antidumping duty order revoked. See Frozen Concentrated Orange Juice from Brazil; Final Results of the Expedited Sunset Review of the Antidumping Duty Order, 69 FR 54117 (Sept. 7, 2004).

On March 29, 2005, the ITC determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the antidumping duty order on FCOJ from Brazil would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time. See Frozen Concentrated Orange Juice from Brazil, 70 FR 15884 (Mar. 29, 2005), and USITC Publication 3760, March 2005.

Scope of the Order

The merchandise covered by this order is FCOJ from Brazil, and is currently classifiable under item 2009.11.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). The HTSUS item number is provided for convenience and customs purposes. The Department's written description of the scope of the order is dispositive.

Determination

As a result of the determination by the ITC that revocation of the antidumping duty order would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States, the Department, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, is revoking the antidumping duty order on FCOJ from Brazil.

Pursuant to section 751(c)(6)(A)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2)(i), revocation is effective August 5, 2004, the fifth anniversary of the date of the determination to continue the order. The Department will instruct Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to discontinue the suspension of liquidation and collection of cash deposits on entries of the subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after August 5, 2004. The Department will instruct CBP to continue to suspend liquidation of entries of the subject merchandise entered or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption prior to August 5, 2004, and will complete any pending administrative reviews of this order and will conduct administrative reviews of these entries in response to appropriately filed requests for review.

The five-year ("sunset") review and notice are in accordance with sections 751(c) and 777(i)(1) of the Act.

Dated: April 5, 2005.

Notice of Rescission of Changed Circumstances Antidumping Duty Administrative Review: Frozen Concentrated Orange Juice from Brazil

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 13, 2005.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Elizabeth Eastwood or Jill Pollack, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-3874 and (202) 482-4593, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background:

On May 5, 1987, the Department published in the Federal Register an antidumping duty order on frozen concentrated orange juice (FCOJ) from Brazil covering all Brazilian producers except Sucocitriculo Cultrale, S.A. See Antidumping Duty Order of Sales at Less than Fair Value: Frozen Concentrated Orange Juice from Brazil, 52 FR 16426 (May 5, 1987).

On January 19, 2005, the Department initiated a changed circumstances administrative review of the antidumping duty order on FCOJ from Brazil at the request of Louis Dreyfus Citrus Inc., (Louis Dreyfus). See Frozen Concentrated Orange Juice from Brazil; Initiation of Changed Circumstances Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, 70 FR 3904 (Jan 27, 2005). On March 18, 2005, Louis Dreyfus withdrew its request for a changed circumstances review.

Rescission of Changed Circumstances Review

Section 351.213(d)(1) of the Department's regulations provides that the Department will rescind an administrative review if a party that requested a review withdraws the request within 90 days of the date of publication of the notice of initiation of the requested review. (19 CFR 351.213(d)(1) (2004)) The Department's rules regarding review withdrawals do not specifically reference changed circumstances administrative reviews. In this case, Louis Dreyfus requested withdrawal of its changed circumstances review within ninety days of the review being initiated, the time period the Department generally considers reasonable for requesting the withdrawal of administrative reviews. Therefore, the Department has accepted Louis Dreyfus' withdrawal request in this case as timely.

The Department is now rescinding this changed circumstances antidumping duty administrative review. U.S. Customs and Border Protection will continue to suspend liquidation, as appropriate, of entries of subject merchandise at the appropriate cash deposit rate for entries of FCOJ from Brazil.

This notice also serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305(a)(3). Timely written notification of return or destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested. Failure to comply with the regulation and the terms of an APO is a sanctionable violation.

This determination is issued and published in accordance with sections 751(a)(1) and 777(i)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Dated: April 5, 2005.
