Proposed Project

Evaluation of Customer Satisfaction with the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry Internet Home Page and Links (OMB No. 0923-0028)—Reinstatement—Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

ATSDR's mandate under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA), as amended, is to assess the presence and nature of health hazards at specific Superfund sites. ATSDR considers evaluation to be a critical component for enhancing program effectiveness and improving resource management. Furthermore, in accordance with the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (Pub. L. 103-62), the e-Government Act of 2002 and the Federal Enterprise Architecture are key elements of the President's Management Agenda. These "e-government" initiatives have charged staff at all levels of the federal government with the improvement of program effectiveness and public accountability by promoting new focuses on results, service quality, and customer satisfaction. Federal agencies are further charged with the responsibility to articulate clearly the results of their programs in terms that are understandable to their customers, their stakeholders, and the American taxpayer. The proposed data collection addresses these concerns and serves to improve ATSDR's health promotion agenda by providing data on which to assess and improve the usefulness and usability of information provided via ATSDR's Internet-based Home Page and Links. ATSDR has designed its Internet site to serve the general public, persons at risk for exposure to hazardous substances, collaborating organizations, state and local governments, and health professionals. As a "Support Delivery of Services" tool, the ATSDR Web site presents information focused on prevention of exposure and adverse human health effects and diminished quality of life associated with exposure to hazardous substances from waste sites, unplanned releases, and other sources of pollution present in the environment. Furthermore, the ATSDR Web site advances the Agency's health promotion messages, product outreach activities, and future survey options currently under consideration. Therefore, it is critical that ATSDR have the capacity to answer whether or not
