Abstract of Information Available

A total of 97 cultural items consisting of ceramic bowls, ladles, mugs, and jars from Coconino and Navajo Counties, Arizona have been requested for repatriation. On behalf of the Field Museum, Jesse A. Burt removed these 97 unassociated funerary objects during excavations at numerous sites in the fall of 1899 and winter of 1890. These sites include Wupatki, Wukoki as well as smaller sites along the Little Colorado River. All of the items included in this request are archaeological. Based on consultation, academic research, and Museum records, these sites are affiliated with the Hopi Tribe of Arizona. There is no known presence of any potentially hazardous substances used to treat any of the cultural items.

Determinations

The Field Museum has determined that:

- The 97 unassociated funerary objects described in this notice are reasonably believed to have been placed intentionally with or near human remains, and are connected, either at the time of death or later as part of the death rite or ceremony of a Native American culture according to the Native American traditional knowledge of a lineal descendant, Indian Tribe, or Native Hawaiian organization. The unassociated funerary objects have been identified by a preponderance of the evidence as related to human remains, specific individuals, or families, or removed from a specific burial site or burial area of an individual or individuals with cultural affiliation to an Indian Tribe or Native Hawaiian organization.

- There is a connection between the cultural items described in this notice and the Hopi Tribe of Arizona.
