Roy, Special Counsel, at (202) 942-0073, Division of Market Regulation, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549-1001.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 19, 2004, the Agencies requested comment on their Interagency Statement concerning the complex structured finance activities of financial institutions supervised by the Agencies (national and state banks; bank holding companies; federal and state savings associations; savings and loan holding companies; and SEC-registered broker-dealers and investment advisors). The Interagency Statement describes the types of internal controls and risk management procedures that the Agencies believe are particularly effective in assisting financial institutions to identify and address the reputational, legal, and other risks associated with complex structured finance transactions. The Interagency Statement, among other things, provides that financial institutions should have effective policies and procedures in place to identify those complex structured finance transactions that may involve heightened reputational and legal risk, to ensure that these transactions receive enhanced scrutiny by the institution, and to ensure that the institution does not participate in illegal or inappropriate transactions.

Several trade associations that represent financial institutions have requested that the Agencies extend the public comment period for the Interagency Statement for an additional 30-day period. The trade associations have indicated that such an extension would enable them and their members to better analyze and address the substantive, operational and legal issues associated with the Interagency Statement.

In light of these requests, the Agencies are providing the public additional time to comment on the proposed Interagency Statement.

You should submit your comments on the Interagency Statement by July 19, 2004.
