

Program (“NSRP”) has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing changes in its membership. The notifications were filed for the purpose of extending the Act’s provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Specifically, Bollinger Shipyards Lockport L.L.C., Lockport, LA, has withdrawn as a party to this venture.

No other changes have been made in either the membership or planned activity of the group research project. Membership in this group research project remains open, and NSRP intends to file additional written notifications disclosing all changes in membership.

On March 13, 1998, NSRP filed its original notification pursuant to Section 6(a) of the Act. The Department of Justice published a notice in the Federal Register pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act on January 29, 1999 (64 FR 4708).

The last notification was filed with the Department on March 2, 2017. A notice was published in the Federal Register pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act on April 4, 2017 (82 FR 16418).

BILLING CODE 4410–11–P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[Attorney General Order No. 4381–2019]

Judicial Redress Act of 2015; Attorney General Designations

AGENCY: Office of the Attorney General; United States Department of Justice.

ACTION: Notice of designation by the Attorney General of a “covered country.”

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Judicial Redress Act of 2015, relating to the extension of certain Privacy Act remedies to citizens of designated countries, notice is given that the Attorney General has designated the United Kingdom as a “covered country.”

DATES: The designation herein is effective on April 1, 2018, the date the U.S.-EU Data Protection and Privacy Agreement becomes applicable to the United Kingdom.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Thomas Burrows, Associate Director, Office of International Affairs, Criminal Division, United States Department of Justice, 1301 New York Avenue, Suite 900, Washington, DC 20005, 202–514–0080.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On February 1, 2017, an executive agreement entered into force between the United States (“U.S.”) and the European Union (“EU”) (collectively, “Parties”) for the protection of personal information relating to the prevention, investigation, detection, and prosecution of criminal offenses. The agreement, commonly known in the United States as the Data Protection and Privacy Agreement (“DPPA”), establishes a set of protections that the Parties are to apply to personal information exchanged for the purpose of preventing, detecting, investigating, or prosecuting criminal offenses. Article 19 of the DPPA establishes an obligation for the Parties to provide, in their domestic law, specific judicial redress rights to each other’s citizens. The Judicial Redress Act, Public Law 114–126, 130 Stat. 282 (5 U.S.C. 552a note), is implementing legislation for Article 19.

Under Article 27 of the DPPA, Denmark, Ireland, and the United Kingdom (“UK”) are excluded from the Agreement unless the European Commission (“EC”) notifies the U.S. that those countries have decided that the Agreement shall apply to them. Such notice was provided for Ireland in January 2017, and it was designated at the same time as 25 other EU members.

On March 9, 2018, the EC notified the U.S. that the DPPA shall apply to the UK as of April 1, 2018. The U.S., under the terms of the DPPA, is therefore required to provide certain judicial redress rights to citizens of the UK as of April 1, 2018.

Determinations and Designations Pursuant to Section 2(d)(1)
